BIBLIOGRAPHY

Primary Sources

______: A Division of the Spoils, Author’s note and acknowledgement, William Heinemann, Random House, 20 Vauxhall Bridge Road, London SWIV2SA, 1975.

Secondary Sources

A News clipping reporting the Madras Resolution The Glasgow Herald, Tuesday, April 28, 1942.

_____. (Quoted by), E.M. Forster’s India, London and Basingstoke, 1977.

History Theme and Purpose, Library Chronicle of the University of Texas, 38, 1986.

Mawar, The Hindustan Times, ‘Conspiracy between the British Diehard and Jinnah’.

_____, The Image of India in Western Creative Writing, Karnatak University, Dharwar, 1970.

Nirad C. Chaudhari, Passage to and From India, Paramountcy, 1857.

_____, The History of Indian National Congress, Delhi: S. Chand & Co., 1948.

Penderel Moon, Divide and Quit, University of California Press, Bahawalpur (Pakistan: Division), 1962.

Peter Childs, Paul Scott’s Raj Quartet: History and Division, English Literary Studies, University of Victoria, 01-08-1998.

Ram Chandra Pradhan, RAJ to SWARAJ, Macmillan Publishers India Ltd.

Sharpe Jenny, Allegories of Empire: The Figure of Woman in the Colonial, Minnesota University of Minnesota Press, 1993.

