ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to acknowledge all those who have helped me complete this work successfully.

How do I express my deep gratitude to my Research Guide, Dr. Robin D. Tribhuwan? He has been such a marvelous Research Guide. His clear and objective approach has inspired me to conduct deeper studies in this area of research. He has a special knack of passing down the thrill of research insights to his students. His constant follow-up of his students’ work is a special trait that encourages one to work harder. He exudes a positive attitude despite his busy schedule. I am ever thankful to him for all this. Dr. Tribhuwan, this would not have been possible without you.

I wish to place on record my gratitude to the entire faculty of Social Sciences, Tilak Maharashtra University. I wish to thank Prof. Vijay Karekar, Dean, Department of Social Sciences, who has always been very encouraging. At this juncture, I would like to thank Dr. Anupama Keskar (Retired Head, Department of Sociology, Tilak Maharashtra University), for her gentle support. I am also thankful to the Head of the Department of Sociology, Tilak Maharashtra University, Dr. Vishal Jadhav for all the support extended. I also wish to thank the Librarian and all the staff of Tilak Maharashtra University.

I wish to place on record, my sincere thanks to D. Fr. Anthony Dias, Director, Xavier’s Institute of Social Research, St. Xavier’s College, Mumbai, who has been a constant mentor and staunch support. His appreciation of my work has been very encouraging.

I wish to thank the Librarian of St. Xavier’s College and all the library staff for their unstinted support and cooperation. I have made extensive use of the St. Xavier’s College Library with its vast collection of books.

I express my deep gratitude to Dr. Fr. Frazer Mascarenhas, Principal, St. Xavier’s College, the Junior College Vice-Principal, Office Staff and my colleagues who have always been a source of encouragement and support.
There are no words to express my deep gratitude to my Data Collection Team. How can I thank Mrs. Vaishali Thakkar Patil and her husband Mr. Vaibhav Patil and both their families – without whom data collection would have been a huge struggle? It was with Vaishali’s help that I covered 11 talukas in Thane District so extensively as to be able to find 85 sacred groves. Her familiarity with the area and her relationship with the tribal and rural people due to her own social work went a long way in making my data collection possible within a year’s time. Thank you, Vaishali!

I take this opportunity to thank The Bombay Natural History Society (BNHS) for their help. The leadership course in Biodiversity Conservation conducted by them (2008 – 09) was very useful for my research. Also, I have made good use of the library of BNHS. Several of the rare books that I have been lucky to be able to refer to have been from there.

It is very important to mention here the gratitude I feel for the kind of training in Research Methodology extended by the wonderful staff of Nirmala Niketan College of Social Work, where I completed the research methodology course. Dr. Sarath Kumar, Dr.Sr. Anita Chettiar and all other faculty. I also wish to thank Imran from Royal Book House for procuring books for me at short notice, which helped me a great deal.

This research would not have been possible without the cooperation of all the local tribal and rural people of Thane District whose houses I visited, with whom I shared meals and sat for long hours during interviews, discussions and interaction. I am grateful that I have had the opportunity to meet such beautiful people.

Most importantly, I have to conclude by thanking my family – all my near and dear ones for their help and support. My beloved husband, Vijay Nadkarni, my dear children Neha and Nishant, my in – laws, the late Mr. Gajanan Nadkarni and Mrs. Kusum Nadkarni and my parents, my father, the late Dr. G.B. Hanji and Mother, Mrs. Kamala Hanji, for all their constant appreciation and encouragement.
