List of Figures

Figure 1: Pie Representation of the gender of the Customers .................................................. 99
Figure 2: Graphical Representation of the age of the customers .............................................. 100
Figure 3: Pie representation of the income range of the customers ........................................ 101
Figure 4: Pie chart of the types of cosmetic product used by the customers ................................. 102
Figure 5: Graphical representation of benefits of herbal products according to the customers . 103
Figure 6: Factors affecting the buying choices of the customers for herbal and non-herbal products ........................................................................................................................................ 104
Figure 7: Graphical representation of the non-herbal brands used by consumers .................... 106
Figure 8: Graphical representation of the reasons for customer preference .............................. 108
Figure 9: Pie representation of Herbal product brands ............................................................ 109
Figure 10: Pie representation of the reasons for choosing herbal products ............................. 110
Figure 11: Graphical representation of customer’s view on product superiority ........................ 111
Figure 12: Graphical representation of customer view on Patanjali’s product portfolio............. 112
Figure 13: Pie representation on customer responses for cheaper product.............................. 113
Figure 14: Pie representation on customers witnessing skin problems ................................... 114
Figure 15: Issues of non-herbal products .................................................................................. 115
Figure 16: USP of the Patanjali product ..................................................................................... 116
Figure 17: Restraints consumers .............................................................................................. 117
Figure 18: Accessibility ........................................................................................................... 118
Figure 19: Product Quality ...................................................................................................... 199
Figure 20: Quality Comparison ............................................................................................... 120
Figure 21: Benefits of Patanjali Product ................................................................................... 121
Figure 22: Difference of herbal and non-herbal product ......................................................... 123
Figure 23: Customer satisfaction ............................................................................................. 124
Figure 24: Reliability ............................................................................................................... 126
Figure 25: Improvent criteria .................................................................................................. 128
Figure 26: Recommendation .................................................................................................... 129