I do not know which more difficult complement a dissertation is, or writing the acknowledgement. Knowing that the letter will be always inadequate and incomplete expression of the immense debts owned in reaching this stage.

I would like to thank the Lord God for giving me health, strength and peace to accomplish this work. This work wouldn’t have realized without the assistance and moral support of my family, my friends, and my teachers. I greatly acknowledge the support of all.

I would like to convey my sincere gratitude and heartfelt reverence to my advisor Prof. Sankar Majumder for suggesting the problem and for his valuable guidance, advice and constant encouragement during the course of my investigation.

I am indebted to Prof. Maitreyee Chowdhuri, Dr. Santanu Rakshit, Dr. Rathindra Nath Pramanik, Dr. M. Alanka Masillamani for always open their door and heart to guide me through the right truck and I am very much grateful for the unlimited encouragement and support I got from them which actually get me going.

The support of the staff members of the department was exemplary. My special thanks go to Sri Mrityunjay Chakraborty and Sri Subodh Kumar who all were extremely helpful in the administrative affairs.

I am grateful to the Head, Palli Charcha Kendra (Department of Rural Studies, Sriniketan Campus, Visva-Bharati) for providing me with various facilities to carry out my research work. Thanks are due to the Librarian of Central Library and Bhavana Library of Visva-Bharati. I am also grateful to Dr. Ratnadeep Ray for helping me immensely during various stages of my research.

It was a great atmosphere in our department, thanks to my colleagues Sri Anirban Baitalik, Sri Mainak Roy, Sri Dipak Kumar Mondal, and Sri Sumanta Das. We shared so much among ourselves. Though we worked in different projects but each one of us was helping others throughout the course duration. I can never thank them enough for their cooperation.
At last I would like to express my deepest thanks to my parents and family members for heartily co-operation and continuous, effortless support and inspiration which made possible for me to complete my research work in due time.
