ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have no adequate way of indicating my gratitude to my supervising guide Dr. RAJAGOPALA NAIR, Reader, Dept. of Commerce and Research Centre, St. Albert’s College, Ernakulam. It is indeed a matter of privilege and pleasure to do research under his guidance. He guided me with superb skill and dedication and I benefited enormously from his splendid ideas and philosophical profundities. I express my deep sense of gratitude to him for being extremely helpful to me and also for his scholarly guidance, constructive criticism, constant encouragement and valuable suggestions at all stages of the work.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. M.R. Joseph, Principal, St. Albert’s College, Ernakulam and Prof. Paul Cornelius, Head of the Department of Commerce, St. Albert’s College for providing all the infrastructure needed for the study. The atmosphere at the Research Centre, St. Albert’s College, Ernakulam was very conducive to my research work.

My sincere thanks are due to the Librarian and other officials of the Library of the St. Albert’s College, Ernakulam, Library of the School of Management Studies, Cochin University of Science and Technology, the British Council Library, Thiruvananthapuram, the Centre for Development Studies Thiruvananthapuram and the Library of Kerala University for providing the library facilities.

I am greatly indebted to a number of investment professionals and stock brokers specially Sri. George C.J., Geojith Securities Ltd. and Sri. Aravindan, Stock Broker, Peninsular Capital Markets Ltd. for their timely help. My gratitude to all those investors from whom I collected the data for the study.

Last but not the least I record my gratitude to Rev. Sr. Tessa, Principal, St. Teresa's College, Ernakulam for allowing me to do the research work. I thank my colleagues who provided me with the time, support and inspiration needed to prepare the thesis. I am immensely thankful to my friends Smt. Betty Mathew, Smt. Renuka S., Dr. Helen K.J., Smt Lakshmi Devi and Smt. Jacob Mary, who helped me mould and shape this thesis. I would like to thank the Twinkle Computer Centre, Kalamassery, for their prompt service. Further, I wish to acknowledge the help extended to me by my husband and children.
