ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The final presentation of my Ph.D. thesis work provides me the opportunity to extend heartfelt thanks and gratitude to all the people who helped and motivated me over this period.

I express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to my supervisor Dr. Ashok Kumar Jain, presently Head of the Department, S.D. College, Muzaffarnagar, for his able guidance and keen interest in my work. He always encouraged me to work on my thesis related problems. It could not have been possible for me to complete this work without his valuable suggestions and encouragement.

It is my privilege to thank gratefully Dr. Dinesh Kumar, Hon’ble Principal, S.D. College, Muzaffarnagar for not only providing me a college premises and other facilities but also his encouragement.

This successful stepping stone in my life is by the grace and affection of my respected brother Mr. Anil Yadav, Bhabhi Mrs. Meera Yadav, and beloved nephews Atul, Nitish and Abhishebk who stood by my side at the time of problems and who helped me financially without which it was not possible for me to complete this thesis.

Special thanks are due to my friend Mrs. Garima Verma and Dr. Sameer Verma who helped me and rendered their full cooperation in gathering field observations and data required for the study area. I am also grateful to Dr. Neelam Rana who always helped me at the time of problems.

Finally, I express my thanks to my husband Mr. Manoj Yadav for his continuous all around support and my loving son for his mesmerizing company, which keeps me always on high morals.
