“The Guru is the conveyance in which the spiritual influence is brought to you. Anyone can teach, but the spirit must be passed on by the Guru to the Shishya (disciple), and that will fructify” –

- Swami Vivekananda

This book is the culmination of three years of hard work and it has truly been an education that goes beyond the academic sphere. It has also taught me what team work is and how to best manage my time and multitask. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the people without whom this research work would have not come to fruition.

To begin with I will be forever grateful to my parents, late A. Sheshachalam and Mrs. Padmavathi, and my brothers Mr. A. Sravan Kumar & Mr. A. Purnachandrananth, without whose unrelenting support, my Manipal journey would have been more grueling than what it was. They believed in my competence and were my pillars of strength through the times when I lost faith in myself, for which I will be in their debt always.

“True guidance is like a small torch in a dark forest. It does not show everything at once, but gives enough light for the next step to be safe.” My guide, Dr. G. Arun Maiya, Dean & Professor, has been that beacon of light guiding my every step till the very end. His implacable insistence for getting things done just right, astute inputs concerning the study and extensive counsel given whenever requested has pushed me to perform a little bit harder than what I thought myself capable of.

I’m fortunate to have the invaluable inputs, constant support and encouragement from my co-guide Dr. B. A. Shastry. His calm bearing, soothing words of reassurance

I would also like to thank my Doctoral Advisory Committee members. Sincere gratitude to our former dean of the Institution Dr. B Rajashekhar for serving as my committee member even at hardship.

Apart from the efforts that I have put in the thesis, the success of any research projects depends on the encouragement and guidelines of many others. I take this great opportunity to express my gratitude to Dr. Shashi, Dr. Animesh Hazari, Dr. Stephen Samuel, Dr. Rohit Ravi, Dr. Kiran, Mr. Ranjith, Mr. Hrishikesh Yadav, Mr. Prabhath Kalkura, Mr. Parameshwar, Ms. Shubha G, Ms. Esha Arora, Ms. Gagana, Ms. Megha, Mrs. Radhika & Ms. Chaya Shetty who has been instrumental in the successful completion of my thesis through their suggestions and friendship.

I would especially like to thank Centre for Diabetic Foot Care and Research, Diabetic Foot Clinic, World Diabetes Foundation (WDF), physicians, Nurses, and nurse aids in the Department of General Medicine, Kasturba Hospital, Manipal. All of you have been there to support me when I recruited patients and collected data for my Ph.D. thesis.

I would also like to extend my warm appreciation to my fellow batch mates and friends who have, in their own way, helped me inch closer to my goal. Be it finding participants to recruit or just patiently listening to my frustrated rant, they have made sure I see reason and keep focused. I must extend my gratitude to Ms. Arunima Biswas who has helped me a lot with the fine tuning of my thesis book and lent her expertise in improvement of my work.

Special thanks to Dr. Ravishankar for his statistical consultations which helped me to finish my work effectively and easily. I am also thankful to my undergraduate and post graduate friends for their invaluable assistance. I would also like to thank the Technical staffs Mr. Krishna, Mr. Kamath, Mr. Janardhan, Mrs. Ashwini, Mr. Karthik, and Mr. Subramanyam without whom this journey could not be accomplished. Thank you so much.

I would also like to thank Mr. Suresh N for helping me in alignment of pages and printing this book of mine.

I am grateful to Manipal Academy of Higher Education, for all the support provided and helping me to complete my thesis and molding me a good professional. Lastly, I thank all the participants and their caregivers for taking the time out and having the patience to participate in my study.
