ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Everyone is my teacher. Some I seek. Some I subconsciously attract. Often, I learn simply by observing others. Some may be completely unaware that I’m learning from them, yet I bow deeply in gratitude.”

......Eric Allen

This doctoral thesis in its current form is due to the assistance and encouragement of several people. It would be impossible to refer in detail every single person who has been helpful to me in one way or the other throughout my research. It is a pleasure to express my sincere thanks to all those who helped me for the success of this study.

First, I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Manipal Academy of Higher Education for providing me with this opportunity to undertake my doctoral studies. I am deeply indebted to my guide, Dr Harish G Joshi, for his constant support during the research; for his patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my research.

My sincere appreciation to Prof. Ramashesa C S, Director, MSOIS, for his support during my research. I would like to acknowledge Dr Keethana Prasad, Dr Balachandra (MIT, Manipal), Dr Dinesh Acharya (MIT, Manipal) and Dr Suresh Ramanamaiyya (MGM College, Manipal) for their constructive critiques during the process of research as my subject experts. I am thankful to all the teaching and non-teaching staff of Manipal School of Information Sciences, Manipal, who helped me during the course of my research.

It is difficult to review one’s own work, I am grateful to Dr Harishchandra Hebbar for proofing reading the chapters and giving me valuable feedback. I am forever indebted to all my Teachers, for their role and contribution in my academic, intellectual and moral upbringings.
I am ever grateful and indebted to my loving Parents for showering me with all the love, and blessings and to my Sister who has always been there for me. My dream of completing this work would have not come true without their wholehearted support, sacrifice and prayers. I am thankful to my in-laws for their blessings, encouragement and words for motivation.

Lastly, but most importantly I would like to acknowledge my adorable wife, my best friend at every step of my life. I cannot thank you enough for supporting and motivating me always. Thank you for your love, patience and encouragement.
