ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I thank the Almighty, the merciful and gracious Kashi Viswanath who has always bestowed His blessings upon me.

I sincerely acknowledge my debt of gratitude to the revered scholars whose works I cited, from whose articles I drew quotations extensively and whose opinions I referred to in my work to lend authenticity to my humble attempt.

This is a wonderful opportunity for me to acknowledge the people without whom it would not have been possible to complete my doctoral degree. Truly, words are not enough to express my gratitude to all of them.

First of all, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. G. Rai with whom the idea and inspiration for the present thesis originated and, simultaneously, his constant support and guidance emboldened me to complete the task graciously. Words are inadequate to express my feelings of respect and reverence for him.

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. K. M. Pandey, Dept. of English, BHU, for his expertise shown in guiding my work, the willingness to share his knowledge and experience and also his persistent encouragement during the period of study. I am deeply indebted to him for his kindness, constant encouragement and support.

I owe a debt of gratitude to all my teachers especially Prof. S. N. Pandey, Prof. R. N. Rai, Prof. M. S. Pandey, Prof. A. P. Barat, Prof. G. C. Behera, Prof. Anita Singh, Prof. D. R. Pattnaik, Prof. A. Khanna, Prof. J. S. Jha, Prof. M. K. Pandey, Dr. B. Mahanta and Prof. Upendra Pandey (Sanskrit) who have not only guided me as a student in the past but still guide me in all matters of literary significance. I equally thank Prof. Vanshree, Head, Department of English for her encouragement and moral support.
On this occasion I remember with reverence all my teachers from DDU Gorakhpur University especially Dr. Ajay Shukla, Dr. Alok Kumar, Dr. G. H. Behera and Dr. Awanish Rai.

My parents (Sri Ajay Kumar Rai, Smt. Nirmala Rai) are my first teachers who tried their best to cultivate in me the qualities, ideals which shaped and influenced my personality as a worthy human being. Here I would like to extend my sense of gratitude to my grandfather, Sri Shyam Narayan Rai, who first taught me ABC and generated my interest in English language and literature. My indebtedness to them knows no bounds.

My two uncles (Sanjay Rai, Sujeet Rai), sisters (Nisha, Priyanka, Arohi) and brothers (Dhanjit, Rahul, Gulshan, Abhinav) deserve my thanks for their affection and moral support. Last but not the least, I thank Bharti Rai, my better half, for her support not only in emotional domain but academic one also.
