ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At first I bow down my head to Lord Shri Kashi Vishwanath for giving me strength and dedication and taking care of all my need.

My salutations to our revered Bharat Ratna Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya Ji, whose everlasting desire to serve mankind, has led the foundations of this great seat of learning, Banaras Hindu University, my alma mater today.

An aim is the eternal condition of success which is attainable at perfection in everything by the bearer with the association of their predecessors, teachers, family members, friends and colleagues. No words would adequately express my feelings for them yet these lines are not exaggeration but feelings, which come straight from my heart.

I visualize a rare moment of pride and pleasure to extend my beloved and magnanimous advisor and chairman of my Research Programme Committee, Dr. Hari kesh Bahadur Singh, Professor, Department of Mycology and Plant Pathology, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi. It is beyond my apprehension to express my deep sense of gratitude to him for his skilful and noble guidance, vast experience, unrivalled knowledge, incessant inspiration, stimulating discussions, healthy criticism, unstinting moral support and above all his scientific and humanitarian approach which has left in an everlasting impression on the canvas of my mind and helped me in completing this thesis work in time.

I also take this opportunity to thank my Co-supervisor Dr. Ram Chandra for his valuable guidance and thoughtful suggestions during this research work.

I also take this opportunity to thank my Research Progress Committee (RPC), Dr. (Mrs) Aska Sinha, Professor and Dr. R.K. Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Mycology & Plant Pathology, Dr. P.S. Singh, Department of Plant Physiology, Banaras Hindu University for their valuable guidance and thoughtful suggestions in the need of time during this research work.

I feel paucity of words to express my gratefulness and warmest regard to all my teachers, Dr. Ramesh Chand, Dr. B.K. Sarma, Dr. S.S. Vaish, Dr. Vineeta Singh, Dr. Satyendra Pratap Singh, Dr. Ankita Sarkar and Dr. D.D. Bhutia of the Department of Mycology & Plant Pathology, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, B.H.U., for their timely help and co-operation during the course of my study.

I am gladly placing on record my thanks to all the non-teaching staff of the Department of Mycology & Plant Pathology; Mr. Laxman Prasad, Mr. Amit Kumar Singh, Mr. Kailash Prasad, Mr. Dashrath Prajapati, Mr. Ram Kumar, Mr. Keshav and Mr. Kaushik for their timely help during the course of my study.

I bestow my cordial sense of gratitude to my respected parents, Shri Rajesh Pratap Singh and Smt. Sarita Singh, for their blessings, sacrifice, affection and moral support throughout my life. I am highly thankful to my family specially my Aunt Dr. Saroj Singh, for her support and love throughout my Ph.D. period. This could not be possible by her instructions and strong words.

The foremost valuable person regarding my thesis and submission is my younger Sister Pragya Bisen, without her this was not even possible and I know it for sure. I am highly grateful to her and always will be in debt for her love and constant support and push in the hour of need.

I also owe my thanks to Dr. Govind Pratap Rao, Principal Scientist, Division of Plant Pathology, IARI, Pusa, New Delhi for his guidance, encouragement, co-operation at crucial time.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Chetan Keswani, for his keen interest, giving constant inspiration, guidance and assistance throughout my Ph.D. period.

I am thankful to my lab mates Dr. Ratul Moni Ram, Dr. Vivek Singh, Dr. Shatrupa Ray, Dr. Anukool Vaishnav, Mr. Rahul Singh Rajpoot, Prachi Singh, Jyoti Singh for their unconditional support and help.

I record my thanks to all my friends and well-wishers; Dr. Amvrin Baruah and Dr. Raghuvveer M for their everlasting vibrant encouragement, co-operation, moral support and valuable assistance at all times with cheerful smiling gestures.

I am also expressing my sincere thanks to U.G.C, Govt. of India for providing fellowship during the entire course of my study.

It is more than likely that I have missed many names in these acknowledgements and hope that those concerned although unnamed, will accept my grateful thanks. I still solicit their benediction to proceed at every step of a perfect destined life.
