ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is a pleasant duty for me to acknowledge the kindness of my teachers, friends and well wishers with whose help and advice I was able to complete this work.

At the very outset, I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Syed Ali Nadeem Rezavi, for his excellent guidance. Indeed, his support and encouragement has been crucial in the completion of this work. I am grateful to him for taking keen interest and having cordial attitude during the whole period of my research. In making this thesis a reality the sole credit goes to my supervisor. I am also thankful to my supervisor for providing me the paintings which he had taken from British Library, London.

I am also indebted to Prof. Irfan Habib (Prof. Emeritus) for the interest and concern he has consistently shown in my research work. I owe a special debt of gratitude to Prof. Shireen Moosvi, for all the encouragements and help I received from her during the entire course of my thesis. Among those of my teachers with whom I have discussed sections of this thesis, the due thank to Prof. S. P. Verma, Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History, A.M.U, whose teaching, advice and encouragements helped me greatly in going through this work.

Faiz Habib (Cartographer, Department of History, AMU), has drawn the maps appended in this thesis. I am grateful to Mr. Anwar Raza and Md. Shahnawaz Ali for preparing the computerized plans of the buildings and patiently incorporating all the changes I went on making from time to time. I am abundantly lacking eloquence to express my heartiest gratitude to my friend Mr. Zahid Hashmi and Nasiruddin Khan, who accompanied me in few of the field explorations. I owe special thanks to Md. Salim Zaweed who accompanied me in few of my surveys and also for proof reading and his kind support which encouraged me to complete my work.

I am highly thankful to Mumtaz Alam, Habib Manzer, Dr. Ataullah, Naushad Ali (friend and room-partner) and Asghar Raza for their help and kind support, especially for proof reading and text editing of my thesis. I am also thankful to Nadra, Farzana, Fazeela Shahnawaz, Fatima Shahnawaz, Nahida Mumtaz, Sadaf Fatima, Shamim Bano, Aziz Faisal, Syed Salahuddin, Suhaib Qayyum and friends in the Department with whom I discussed different aspects of research.

I am highly indebted to Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi, for a grant for my research work.

I should like to put on record my thanks to the staff of the following libraries for allowing me access to the sources and secondary works and especially to the Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History (Aligarh Muslim University), Maulana Azad Library (Aligarh Muslim University), Archaeological Survey of India (New Delhi), Archeological Survey of India (Agra Division), Jaipur City Palace Museum, and Asiatic Society of Bengal, Calcutta.
I am also thankful to Mr. Sajid Islam (Centre for Women’s Studies) who has scanned the illustrations and maps.

My family has been the main source of inspiration to carry on the research work. I am indebted to my parents for their love and affection which they extended to me. My loving brothers Shamim Akhter and Adil Mustafa and my sisters Ayesha Khatoon and Salma Khatoon, who has supported me a lot. It is unfair if I couldn’t mention the name of Annie Bhabhi, Fatima and Fiza for their hospitality and kind support during the whole tenure of my research.

Last but not least, I must confess that in spite of such help from so many quarters, omissions and commissions if there by any, they are absolutely mine.
