All the praises and thanks are to “the one universal Being”, Who inspires entire humanity towards knowledge, truth and eternal commendation, Who blessed me with strength and required passionate ardour to overcome all the obstacles in the way of this toilsome journey. In utter gratitude I bow my head before HIM.

The unfathomable blessings, good wishes and dua of my parents were the spiritual strength with which I have perused this work.

Words are not sufficient for expressing my intensity of sentiments. So, most humbly I express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my reverend supervisor Dr. Rafiqullah Khan, who has always been a source of inspiration for me and whose constructive criticism, affectionate attitude and constant encouragement have added greatly towards the completion of this work. I will remain grateful to him for his kindness as a teacher in the real sense of the term.

My special thanks to Prof. A.H. Khan, for his valuable suggestions, which helped me in clearing up many obscurities and ambiguities at various stages of this work.

My sincere thanks are extended to Prof. M.M. Khalid, Chairman, Department of Statistics and Operations Research, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for his moral support and cooperation during the entire period of my Ph.D. programme.

I am also thankful to Dr. Haseeb Athar for his co-operation and supportive attitude towards the completion of this work.

I will fail in my duty if I do not acknowledge the timely advice and suggestion given by my learned teachers Prof. M.Z. Khan, Dr. S.N. Alam, Prof. M. Yaqub, Prof. M.J. Ahsan, Prof. A. Bari, Prof. A.A. Khan, Prof. H.M. Islam and Dr. S. Javed.

I would like to acknowledge my seniors and my colleagues Dr. Zaki Anwar, Dr. M. Faizan, Mr. Ziaul Haque, Miss Benazir, Miss Anamika, Mr. Yashpal, Mr. Rahul,
Mr. Saiful, Mr. Izhar, Mr. Imtiyaz, Mr. Nayabuddin, Mr. Shamsher and Mr. Irfan.
I am also indebted to those whom I failed to mention.

Thanks are also due to all non-teaching staff members of the department of their help and cooperation especially Dr. Saud Pervez, Mr. Feroz, Mr. M. Rizwan, Mr. M. Jahangir and Mr. Zulfiqar Ali.

This note of thanks would never get completed without extending my deepest thanks to my uncle for his affection, support and encouragement which he exhibit so willingly towards me.

Words cannot express my deepest thanks and gratitude to my father who stood behind me in all the sweet and sour moments of life and was always there to help me affectionately. His love, patience and sacrifice are vested in every page of this study. Whenever I felt tired and sense of despair gripped me, always found him standing by my side, providing me worlds of immense consolation.

I am also thankful to my elder brother Mr. Vinay Kumar for his constant support and encouragement.

Despite all efforts to make the thesis free from error, there may be some of them still left unnoticed for what the author takes all the blame personally.

Last but not least I would like to appreciate the step of The University Grant Commission to provide fellowship to the research scholars. This proves to be a great economic booster for us.
