ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not traveled in a vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. It is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I pay homage to my Supervisor, Professor N. B. Biswas and Co-supervisor, Dr. R. B. Krishnan. This work would not have been possible without their guidance, support and encouragement. Under their guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. I can’t forget their hard times. Despite of their busy schedule, they used to review my thesis progress, give their valuable suggestions and made corrections.

I feel highly indebted to Dr. Tilak Saikia, Inspector of Schools, Jorhat Circle and Mr. Kamaljyoti Gogoi, Asstt. Inspector of Schools, Jorhat Circle for providing me permission to carry out the study among the teachers and students of Assamese and English medium Secondary Schools in the Jorhat district of the state Assam. I am also highly indebted to Mr. Hamen Das, Statistical Officer of the Office of the Inspector of Schools, Jorhat Circle for his valuable time and encouragement.
I feel highly indebted to Dr. Hilloljyoti Singha for providing accommodation to me in Silchar during the days of research work.

I feel highly indebted to Dr. Bijoy Mipun, Professor of Geography Department, NEHU, for his kindness. He has done a lot for me during the days of research work when I was at NEHU library. His encouragement is unforgettable.

I feel highly indebted to Mr. Narayan Sarmah, research scholar of NIAS, Bangalore for providing a few valuable research papers to me during the days of research work. His encouragement is unforgettable.

I would also like to thank some people from early days of my research tenure. Dr. Satyandra Narayan Choudhoury, Mrs. Swapna Bhattacharya, Mr. Bhupendranath Goswamin, Mr. Ashok Acharjiya, Mr. Samaresh Chakraborty, Mr. Ratan Singh, Mrs. Minoti Borthakur, Mr. Gautam Deb were among those who kept me going at the beginning.

I feel highly indebted to Mr. Uttam Baruah, Principal of Nakachari College, for providing me all kinds of mental support during the days of my research work. His encouragement is also unforgettable. I am also thankful to my colleagues of Nakachari College.

Last but not least, I would like to pay high regards to my wife Dr. Monimala Saikia for her sincere encouragement and inspiration throughout my research work and lifting me uphill this phase of life. I owe everything to her. Besides this, several people have knowingly and unknowingly helped me in the successful completion of this research work. I acknowledge to all of them.

--Kumud Ghosh