ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I feel privileged to express my sincere gratitudes to all those who were with me during the tenure of my working in terms of their persuasion, motivation, guidance, encouragement, affection and blessings.

First and foremost, it is a pleasure to express sincere gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Dr. A. S. Zadgaonkar, Professor & Head, (Rtd.) Department of Electrical Engineering Government Engineering College Raipur. His invaluable scholastic suggestions and constructive criticism are culminated in the form of present work. He inculcated the work culture and research attitude in me. I feel highly indebted to him.

I record my sincere gratitude to my co-supervisor Dr. Anupam Shukla, Reader, Electronics & Telecommunication Engineering, National Institute of Technology Raipur, for his valuable suggestions, guidance and timely co-operation inspite of his highly busy schedule. He has really taken lots of pains to make this work fruitful.

I am grateful to Dr. D. S. Bal, Director, National Institute of Technology Raipur for providing the basic infrastructural facilities in the institution and his valuable encouragement.

I extend heartfelt thanks to my Principal Dr. Y. K. Gaur, Chhatrapati Shivaji Institute of Technology Durg who always emulated me for the productive research.

I am also indebted to the young and dynamic Chairman Er. Ajay Prakash Verma, of Chhatrapati Shivaji Institute of Technology Durg for providing at the opportune moment all the facilities required for my research work.

My indebtedness to all faculty members of Chhatrapati Shivaji Institute of Technology Durg for their kind co-operation.

The co-operation and timely assistance provided by Dr. M. K. Verma, Professor National Institute of Technology, is also highly acknowledged.
I wish to express my special thanks to all the students and persons who have really taken great pains to complete the database development by devoting their valuable time and applying tireless efforts.

My father, Shri S. N. Dwivedi and mother Smt. Sushila Dwivedi, were the major inspiring force for this work and I feel highly indebted for their blessings and motivation.

I tender my gratitude to my father-in-law Shri Tulsi Ram Tripathi and Mother-in-law, Smt. Shyama Tripathi for their encouragement. I always experienced the shower of their blessing during the entire work.

For the motivation, love and co-operation extended by my Life Partner Dr. Rajesh Kumar Tripathi, who has steered my academic career and given it this shape for which I will be highly indebted throughout my life.

I am extremely thankful to my daughter Moulshree and son Rachit, who really scarified love and company because of my engagement in the work. They helped me in typing and drawings the figures. They provided me peace and relaxation during the odd hours by their love and care.

Thanks are also due to my brothers, sisters and relatives, who always extended their well wishes in one way or the other.

I bow to the feet of the ALMIGHTY for making everything worthwhile.

In appreciation,

Mrs Neeta Tripathi
