

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In the course of this research I had the opportunity of meeting many people connected with this dissertation. Most people were helpful and generous with their time as well as suggestions.

I wish to express my gratitude to Rev. Dr. Teotonio de Souza, Director of the Xavier Centre of Historical Research, Goa, for his able guidance, constructive criticism and help in at all stages of this research. I am also grateful to him for introducing me to the use of computers for word processing and for giving me some useful material collected by him at the Jesuit Archives in Rome and Brussels.

I am thankful to the authorities and the staff of various archives and libraries I have consulted in Goa and Lisbon (Portugal), specially to Ms. Lilia Colaço-Souza and Rev. Dr. Charles Borges of XCHR for their readiness to help and suggestions. I appreciate also the help given by Ms. Teresa Moraes-Almeida and Mr. Arvind Yalagi of Goa

Archives, Rev. Benjamin Fernandes and Mr. Santana Diniz of Bishop's House, Ms. Archana Kakodkar of Goa University, Ms. Pia Rodrigues and Ms. Lourdes Costa Rodrigues of Central Library, Panjim.

Inspiration to do this work originally came from my father Dr. Francisco C. T. da Silva to whom I will be always grateful. My sincere thanks to Ms. Margaret Lopes and Ms. Isabel Santa Rita Vas for their encouragement and help. Grateful thanks to Mr. Mark Pinto do Rosario for all the help rendered specially with the graphs. I wish to thank also Dr. K. M. Mathew, Head of Department of History, Goa University for encouraging me to go into research. Mr. Oswaldo Fernandes for giving me a collection of useful books; Mr. Ramachandra Naik for the map; Mr. Tony Mascarenhas and Mr. Pedro Costa for the help they rendered.

Various persons have supplied me with interesting and significant information. They include: Dr. Adelia Costa, Dr. Carmo Azavedo, Dr. L. J. de Souza, Ms. Ivette Alvares Colaço, Ms. Lia Alvares Colaço, Mr. Aires de Sa, Ms. Mona Rebello, Dr. Celestino Afonso, Dr. Alvaro Pereira, Dr. Carmo Gracias, Dr. Ferdinando Falção, Ms. Ivonne Costa Pereira, Brig. and Mrs. I. Monteiro, Dr. Manuel Dias and Mr. Adolfo Saldanha --- to all of them I am very grateful.

Finally, I thank my family - Tagore, Rohin and Nandita for their support and understanding. But for their co-operation this work would have remained a dream!
