ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Let me express my gratefulness, straight from my heart to them, without whom my dream would have still remained a dream. At the very outset, with folded hands, I bow my head with reverence and dedicatedly accord my gratitude to the ‘Almighty’ the merciful and compassionate whose grace, glory, blessings and unbroken vigour bestowed upon me in crunch situations, allowed me to reign in odd hours and made me able to float smooth uphill this chapter of my life. Had it not been for his blessings I would not have been able to sail smoothly through this daunting task.

Words are compendious in expressing my profound sense of gratitude to my revered Major Guide, Dr. Manjeet Singh Patterh, Professor, Punjabi University Patiala, for his thoughtful criticism, judicious guidance, unfailing courtesy, moral encouragement, affectionate appreciation, frank and friendly association and tackling a variety of hurdles with patience during the pursuance of this study. It was very proud privilege and unforgettable experience to work under the supervision of such a dedicated guide.

I owe my profound thanks and gratefulness to Dr. (Mrs) Lakhwinder Kaur, Professor, Punjabi University Patiala, for her considerable behavior, intellectual guidance and concrete suggestions at various stages of investigation and critical appraisal of the manuscript.

No appropriate words could be traced in the present lexicon to convey my profound gratitude for the unceasing encouragement and selfless sacrifice of my mother, which will remain indelible in my heart. She brought me to this position with her love, care, devotion, moral support, diehard inspiration and eased the tension of blues which were so common during this period.

I can nostalgically reminisce the good days spent with my nieces Hitakeshi, Divanshi and Purvi. Their cheerful company and love finds none equal.
I owe my deepest gratitude towards wonderful husband, Naveen Gupta. You have supported me in the darkest times and believed in me even when I did not believe in myself. Your tireless effort enabled me to take the time necessary to complete this work. I’ve always loved your joyful spirit and this spirit provided the boost that made even the longest hours enjoyable. This would not have been possible if not for you. No words can express how grateful I am for your love and support and how very much I love and appreciate you. My loving gratitude is due to my in-laws for their loving emotions, enthusiasm and ever-encouraging support. You all mean the world to me!

I cherish with appreciation from my inner heart, the amatory, amenable, blithe, frolicsome, ebullient and convivial company of my magnate, charming and jovial friends, colleagues, roommates and students for their continuous source of strength for me during my Doctorate programme.

Last but not the least, I duly acknowledge my sincere thanks to all who love and care for me. All may not be mentioned but none is forgotten.

Lastly I must say that perhaps things in life are more tedious than the Doctorate programme, but one can steer one’s way through it and able to clear other chapters of life smoothly and confidently through the advice, affection, boons, love, support and encouragement of able guide, friends, relatives, family members and the Almighty.

I dedicate this thesis to my late father and sister who taught me hard work and honesty in work.
