ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This work is the outcome of the immense help I received from my teachers, friends and well wishers. In fact in the course of this work I have accumulated a huge burden of debt which public acknowledgement can do little to lighten. This is a hard job to include the names of all the persons who are involved directly or indirectly in the accomplishment of this work. However, it is my pleasure to thank them all.

First of all I would like to express my special gratitude to my teacher and guide, Professor Mohammad Ashraf Wani, Ex-Head Department of History, University of Kashmir, for his affection and scholarly guidance. In fact, he was the main inspiration behind this work. It would be no exaggeration to say that it was his unflinching faith and unquestioning support that provided me the courage to complete this otherwise daunting assignment.

I am extremely thankful to my teachers, Prof. B. A. Khan, Head Department of History, University of Kashmir, Dr. M. Y. Ganai, Dr. Pervaiz Ahmad and Dr. Farooq Fayaz, who encouraged me throughout the course of this study.

Words fail to express my thanks to Professor David Ludden, University of Pennsylvania and Professor Aditya Mukherjee, Jawaharlal Nehru University for providing me literary support and encouragement.

I owe a deep depth of gratitude to Professor A. R. Trag, Director Research SKUAST, Srinagar, Farooq Ahmad Chadroo, Agricultural Officer, and various Heads of the Departments of Jammu and Kashmir for providing me valuable information on matters of crucial importance.

I also owe much to the library staff of Allama Iqbal Library, University of Kashmir, Central Library Jawaharlal Nehru University, Indian Council of Historical Research, Indian Council of Social Research and Indian Council of Agricultural Research. I wish to record my gratitude for the help I received from Sameena Jee, librarian, Departmental Library, Department of History, Farida Jee, librarian at Government Press Department, Srinagar and Shabir Ahmad librarian at the Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Srinagar.

I am thankful to my family members for their unflinching support and love without which the study would have hardly been possible. Last but not the least I am extremely thankful to my friends, relatives and students for their love, inspiration and tangible assistance.
