ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to express my deep indebtedness to Professor V.G. Vaidya, Department of Chemistry, Govt. College of Engg. & Tech., Raipur, for his valuable guidance; but for his encouragement this work could not have been possible.

I thank DR R.P. Shukla, Professor of Chemistry, Govt. Engineering College, Rewa, Professor D.D. Sharma, Professor A.S. Khanooja and Professor A.K. Seth of Govt. Engineering College, Jabalpur, for providing facilities to work.

I record my gratitude to my friends, DR. P. Nageswara Rao, Department of Chemistry, Govt. Engineering College, Jabalpur, Shri K. Satyannarayana, Department of Chemistry, Govt. Science College, Raipur, and Shri K. Somasekhara Rao, who have helped me in many ways and encouraged me throughout this work.

My sincere thanks are due to Ministry of Education, Govt. of India for awarding me a scholarship.
