ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely obliged to my mentor professor Aijazuddin Ahmad for his encouragement, academic guidance and personal interest in the course of this work; to Professor Amitabh Kundu, Dr. Mohmmad Ishtiaq, Dr. R.S. Gupta for useful discussion on quantitative methods and sociolinguistic problems; to Professor K.S. Siwasami, chairperson, CSRD for his constant encouragement and necessary facilities; to Dr. Sachchidanad Sinha and Shri Mumtaz Khan for making valuable suggestions at different stages of this work; to Shri Sudhir Malakar and Mr. Dripto Mukhopadhyay for the cartographic help; to my friends Satyendra, Seema, Namita and Om Prakash Mandal for their help at various stages of work;

to Mr Sailendra and Mr Harish for typing out the manuscript; to all the persons particularly belonging to the sample villages for their warm welcome and all possible help and cooperation in carrying out the field work in filling up the structured questionnaires. Shri Upendra Prasad Singh, a Jenuite, and his family at Ranchi owe special thank for providing me the facility of a base camp, for making me aware of all possible troubles and for providing list of helpful persons in different areas.

I do not find a word to express my feeling to my parent who extended their helping hand, to devote myself to this work for such a long period of time.
