CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Pages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PREFACE</td>
<td>i - iv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INTRODUCTION</td>
<td>i - lxiv</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Part One

Factual And Theoretical Analysis Of The Problem In The Context Of Less Developed Countries With Reference to India. 1 to 376

CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL BACKGROUND OF THE ANALYSIS OF NATURE AND SITUATION OF EMPLOYMENT PROBLEM IN INDIA. 1 - 63

1. Importance and Place of Agriculture in Indian Economy with reference to International situation regarding this sector.
2. Causes of the Existing Unemployment and Underemployment Situation in India.
3. The Growth of the Population in India -
4. The Dependency on Agriculture.
5. The Size of Land Holdings in India.
6. The Slowness of Industrialization.
7. Occupational Pattern of India's Population.
8. Employment of Women and Children in Agriculture.
9. The Growth of the Economy and the increase in Unemployment.
11. Analysis of the Problem.
12. Nature of Employment in Agriculture:
    Seasonability of Agriculture and Factors responsible for different types of employment in different stages of economies.
13. Nature of prevailing Employment Situation in India.
CHAPTER II  THEORETICAL ASPECT OF FULL EMPLOYMENT AND THE UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRIES.

Introduction.
(i) Meaning of Full-employment.
(ii) Classical Theory of Employment.
(iii) Keynes' Critical Analysis of the Classical Theory.
(iv) Keynes' Effective Demand Deficiency Theory: Its discussion and comparision with the Classical Theory.
(v) Underdeveloped countries and the validity of Keynes' Theory of Employment.
(vii) Nurksen's Thesis: Original Analysis, Limitations and the Assessment and relevancy of the Thesis in the Underdeveloped countries: Criticism and some improvements over the concept.
(ix) General Review of the Nurksen's Thesis and Literature on the subject.
(x) Prof. Khusro's Study in the context of India and the validity of some aspects of Nurksen's Thesis.

CHAPTER III  THE EXPOSITION OF CONCEPTS AND DEFINITIONS RELATED TO UNDER-EMPLOYMENT.

(i) Introduction.
(ii) Underemployment and Overpopulation.
(iii) Disguised Unemployment: Prof. Mrs. Robinson analysis of the term, Dr. Datta's extension of the use of term, Prof. Ragnar Nurksen on disguised unemployment.

(vi) Analysis by Chiang Hsieh.

(vii) The work of Alfredo Navarrete Jr. and Ifigenia M. Navarrete on "Underemployment in Underdeveloped Economies."

(viii) Prof. P.N. Rosenstein-Rodan on Disguised Unemployment and Underemployment.

(ix) Prof. N.V. Sovani on Unemployment and Underemployment.

(x) The work of Ninth International Conference of Labour Statisticians and Critical Assessment of the Concepts recommended by them.

CHAPTER IV ESTIMATES AND APPROACH OF MEASURING UNDEREMPLOYMENT IN UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES WITH REFERENCE TO INDIA.

(i) Introduction: Conceptual discussion of the difficulties in measurement.

(ii) Experience Acquired in Measuring Underemployment: Some past Estimates of Underemployment related to some countries of Europe.

(v) Discussion of the Recent Techniques of Measuring Unemployment and Underemployment in India.

(vi) Recent Approaches in Estimating of Underemployment and Unemployment followed in some Underdeveloped countries: Japan, Puerto Rico, Philippines, Indonesia and Pakistan: Studies and Surveys.
CHAPTER V  STUDIES & MEASUREMENT OF UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNDEREMPLOYMENT IN INDIA.

(i) Introduction: Severely of the problem and its measurement problems.
(ii) Indian Approach and Experience in measuring Underemployment: NSS Approach and Estimates of Unemployment and Underemployment.
(iii) Labour - Time Disposition Approach in Measuring Underemployment.
(iv) Studies in measuring Disguised Underemployment.
(v) Experience acquired in measuring, Potential Underemployment.
(vii) Findings of the Farm Management Studies.
(viii) Estimates of Unemployment and Underemployment in Plans.

CHAPTER VI  THE STRATEGY AND MEASURES FOR PROMOTING EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES IN UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES WITH REFERENCE TO INDIA.

(i) Introduction.
(ii) Measures for employment promotion in Urban Areas.
    Need for urban employment promotion.
    Industrialization.
    Promotion of Industrial employment.
(iii) Strategy of Employment Promotion in Rural Areas.
    Raising the level of investment.
    Raising the employment effects of investment.
    Adequate emphasis on promotion of rural employment.
(iv) Promotion of Employment in Rural Areas.
    Need for Rural Employment Promotion.
(v) Expanding Employment Opportunities in Agriculture.
    Increasing the Agriculture area.
    Raising the productivity of land and reducing Underemployment in the Agricultural Sector.
    Diversification of Farming and Development of activities closely allied to agriculture.
    Works programme for utilising rural manpower.
(vi) Development of Rural Industries: as a measure to increase non-agricultural employment opportunities. Activities closely related to agriculture: Processing of Agricultural Products, Handicrafts and small Scale Industries, Development of Ancillary and Feeder Industries.

(vii) Agrarian Reform.

(viii) Community Development Programmes.

(ix) Demographic Policy.

Part Two 377 to 635

Analysis of the Problem at the State Level and The Empirical Study of Northern Mahakoshal.

CHAPTER VII ECONOMY OF MADHYA PRADESH IN RELATION TO EMPLOYMENT ASPECT. 377-214

(i) Location and Physical Features of the State.

(ii) Land Utilization Pattern in the State.

(iii) Industrial Development and Rural Industries.

CHAPTER VIII AN ANALYSIS OF THE ESTIMATES OF EMPLOYMENT, UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNDEREMPLOYMENT IN MADHYA PRADESH. 413-451

(i) Introduction.

(iii) Analysis of Data on Unemployment:
1961 Census data's definitional limitations and its analysis relevant to unemployment with reference to Northern Mahakoshal.

(iv) Underemployment in Madhya Pradesh:
Analysis based on N.S.S. 16th Round 1960-61 Results.

(v) Employment and Unemployment of Agricultural Labourers.

(vi) An Estimate of Surplus Population in Agriculture in the State.

(vii) Seasonality of Surplus Labour.

(viii) Labour Problem in the State as Compared to India and Other States: its effect on the production if withdrawn and the alternatives.

CHAPTER IX

MADHYA PRADESH STATE AND THE MEASURES TO CREATE EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES WITH THEIR POSSIBILITIES AND PROSPECTS. 452 - 539

(i) Unemployment and Underemployment:
Meaning and Causes.

(iii) Industrial - Structure of Madhya Pradesh
Agricultural Processing Industries,
Forest Based Industries, Textile Industries, Mineral Based Industry, Engineering Industries, Small Scale (Non-factory) Industries.

(iv) Prospects and Possibilities for Industrialization in Madhya Pradesh: The condition of Development in the State.

(v) Review of the Progress of Industrial Sector in the State.

(vi) Increasing the Agricultural Area in Madhya Pradesh.

(vii) Raising the Productivity of Land in Madhya Pradesh.

(ix) Community Development Programme in Madhya Pradesh.

(x) Rural Works Programme in Madhya Pradesh.

(xi) Agrarian Reforms in Madhya Pradesh.

(xii) The Problem of Population Control in Madhya Pradesh.
CHAPTER X  GENERAL FEATURES OF NORTHERN MAHAKOSHAL.

(i) Location of the Area, Physical Features, River Systems, Rainfall and Climate, Forest, Soil.
(ii) Land Utilization and Cropping Pattern.
(v) Population and Land Ratio.
(vi) Occupational Distribution of Population.
(ix) Working Force according to 1961 Census.
(x) Industrial Classification of Working Population.

CHAPTER XI  ANALYSIS, INTERPRETATION AND RESULTS OF THE EMPIRICAL STUDY OF NORTHERN MAHAKOSHAL.

CHAPTER XII  CONCLUSIONS

APPENDICES

(i) Summary Tables of the Survey of Northern Mahakoshal Survey Schedules and Questionnaire.
(ii) Note on the Employment Aspect in the Fourth Plan of India.

BIBLIOGRAPHY: Books & Journals

****