CONTENTS

- Declaration by the Student-----------------------------------------------i
- Declaration by Guide-----------------------------------------------------ii
- Acknowledgements--------------------------------------------------------iii
- Abbreviations-------------------------------------------------------------iv
- Contents----------------------------------------------------------------v-vii
- Introduction--------------------------------------------------------------1-14

1. Background of the Study
2. The Sociology of Literature
3. Introduction to George Orwell
   3.1. Life and Works
   3.2. Literary Influences
   3.4. George Orwell’s Socio-Political Criticism
4. Statement of the Problems and Hypothesis
5. Objectives of the Study
6. Scope and Limitations of the Study
7. Research Methodology
8. An Overview of the Relevant Literature
9. Chapter Scheme

- Chapters

1. The Sociology of Literature: Theoretical Premises----------------------15-80
   1.1. Introduction
   1.2. The Nature and Scope of Sociology and Its Relationship with Literature
   1.3. The Sociology of Literature: Historical Development
      1.3.1. J. C. Herder
      1.3.2. Madame de Stale
      1.3.3. Hippolyte Taine
      1.3.4. Karl Marx and Frederick Engels
      1.3.5. George Plekhanov
      1.3.7. Lucian Goldman
1.3.8. Leo Lowenthal
1.3.9. Robert Escarpit
1.3.10. Alan Swingewood
1.3.11. Some Other Modern Critics

1.4. The Nature of Sociology of Literature

1.5. Areas and Determinants of Literature
   1.5.1. The Social Referent or Context of Literature
   1.5.2. The Role of the Writer
   1.5.3. The Role of the Patron
   1.5.4. The Role of the Gatekeepers

1.6. Theoretical Approaches of the Sociology of Literature
   1.6.1. The sociologically aware study of literature
   1.6.2. Literature as a Kind of Sociology
   1.6.3. Social Genesis of Literature
   1.6.4. Literature as a Social Product and Social Force

2. Sociology of George Orwell’s World View and Creativity ----81-106

2.1. Introduction

2.2 The Conception of World View

2.3. Sociology of George Orwell’s World View

2.4. The Impact Factors of Orwell’s World View and Creativity
   2.4.1. The Impact of Early Life
   2.4.2. The Impact of Educational System
   2.4.3. The Impact Burma of Experience
   2.4.4. The Impact of tramping Expedition in London and Paris
   2.4.5. The Role of Publishers and Reviewers
   2.4.6. The Impact of the Industrial Visit to North England
   2.4.7 The Impact of the Spanish Civil War
   2.4.8. The Impact of Work as a Teacher and a Shop Assistant
   2.4.9. The Impact of Working Class Environment
   2.4.10. The Impact of the Second World War and BBC Work
   2.4.11. The Impact of the Socio-Political Conditions

2.5. The harmony between Orwell’s World View and Creativity
3. The Sociology of George Orwell’s Early Novels----------107-184

3.1. Introduction
3.2. The Sociology of the Novel
3.3. Orwell’s Concept of Novel
3.4. The Sociology of Burmese Days
   3.4.1. Introduction
   3.4.2. The Plot and Characterization of the Novel
   3.4.3. The Major Determinants of the Novel
3.5. The Sociology of A Clergyman's Daughter
   3.5.1. Introduction
   3.5.2. The Plot and Characterization of the Novel
   3.5.3. The Major Determinants of the Novel
3.6. The Sociology of Keep the Aspidistra Flying
   3.6.1. Introduction
   3.6.2. The Plot and Characterization of the Novel
   3.6.3. The Major Determinants of the Novel
3.7. The Sociology of Coming Up For Air
   3.7.1. Introduction
   3.7.2. The Plot and Characterization of the Novel
   3.7.3. The Major Determinants of the Novel

4. The Sociology of George Orwell’s Later Novels----------185-232

4.1. Introduction
4.2. The Sociology of Animal Farm
   4.2.1. Introduction
   4.2.2. The Plot and Characterization of the Novel
   4.2.3. The Major Determinants of the Novel
4.3. The Sociology of Nineteen Eighty Four
   4.3.1. Introduction
   4.3.2. The Plot and Characterization of the Novel
   4.3.3. The Major Determinants of the Novel

5. Conclusions----------------------------------------233-245

➢ Bibliography----------------------------------------246-254