ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I present this thesis with immense pleasure and happiness.

I am conscious of my obligations to persons and institutions before winding up this research work. While it is impossible to acknowledge all of them or any of them adequately, I consider it my privilege and foremost duty to record here my sense of indebtedness at least to some.

The words are inadequate to express my heartiest gratitude to the supervisor Dr. D.K. Mukharya, Head, Department of Criminology & Forensic Science, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, for his keen interest, encouragement, distinguished and valuable guidance, suggestion, critical assessment, valuable comments and improvement of the manuscript and also for providing necessary facilities. His deep insight into the subject, his methods of critical analysis of data and art of presentation have been of immense value. In fact, the present work is the result of his constant encouragement as it would not have been possible for me to complete this work without his scholarly guidance, motivation and help.

I feel deeply beholden to my dynamic and generous Senior Dr. K.K. Gupta (Superintendent of Jail, Bilaspur), who extended to me his all possible favour and help alongwith his motivating encouragement and benignity. He has helped me at every stage by his untiring and ever stimulating guidance.

I am extremely grateful to Mrs. Gupta also who helped and encouraged me during my research.

I acknowledge my fervant thanks to Dr. H.S. Maheshwari, Dr. S.C. Chodhary (Rtd. Reader), Dr. B.S. Chilad, Dr. Ramji Ray and Dr. J.D. Sharma teachers in the department of Criminology & Forensic Science, for their encouragement and suggestions in enlightening my understanding regarding research work.

I am equally grateful to (Rtd.) Prof. Samrendra Saraf, Department of Anthropology, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, for his encouragement.
I can only record my heartfelt thanks to my seniors Dr. Sunanda Dange, Dr. Pramod Chouksay, Dr. Arvind Tiwari, Dr. Pradeep Jain, Dr. Shailendra Saraf, Dr. Omprakash Guru, Mr. Sanjay Jain and Mr. R.D. Bhardwaj for their excellent cooperation, inspiration and friendly academic discussions.

Next, the author wishes to thank Mr. Ashok Khare, Superintendent of Jail, REWA; Mr. Gopal Tamrakar, Superintendent of Jail Durg and Mrs. Tamrakar; Dr. Ram Bhajan Tamrakar; Mr. Senger, Jailor, Bilaspur for their encouragement and suggestions.

The author wishes to place on record his gratitude to Shri Israr Ahmed, Additional I.G. Prisons, M.P. Bhopal, for the necessary permission and ready cooperation.

I am specially thankful to Mr. Vivek Mehta, Miss Savita Gupta, Mr. Akhilesh sodhiya, Mr. Bhupendra Chouhan, Mrs. Usha Raj, Mr. Deepak Gupta, Mr. Dilip Gupta, Mr. Raj Kumar Agrawal, Mr. Rajesh Khatri, Mr. Gajendra Katere, Mr. Rajesh Katere, Mr. Anil Soni and Mr. Santosh Soni for their kind co-operation.

I also express my deep sense of indebtedness to members of staff in the department of Criminology and Forensic Science especially Mr. M.P. Dubey, Mr. P.D. Dubey, Mr. Soni, Mr. Borwanker, Mrs. Rana, Mr. Gokul Chacha, Mr. Ashok Kannojiya and Mr. Sarif who helped me in many ways during my research.

I am grateful to my respected mother Smt. Urmila Tandan whose blessings and inspiration have brought this work to completion. I am greatly thankful to my wife, Smt. Neeti Tandan, my younger brother Lazman Tandan, sisters, mother-in-law, sister-in-laws and father-in-law Shri Narbada Prasad Richharia whose affectionate cooperation and kind help have made me capable to finish this task on time despite many personal and professional problems.
