ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Author feels utmost pleasure in expressing his gratefulness to Dr. H. D. Badami under whose guidance this study took the present shape. His exemplary cooperative spirit and inspiring encouragement motivated the author to undertake this study.

I gratefully record my thanks to consulting cardiologists, Dr. Jyotindra Bhatt, Dr. Ramesh Kapadia, Dr. Darshan Shah, Dr. Suryaprasad Mehta and others who helped me in many respect, in completing the present study and facilitating the data collection.

A special acknowledgement is also made to the R.M.O. and administrative authorities of various general hospitals like V.S. General Hospital, Civil Hospital and Some private general Dispensaries, who cooperated and facilitated the data collection.

My vote of thanks is due to my friend Prof. Dinesh M. Rawal for going through the entire thesis and making necessary corrections from the viewpoint of language. It is impossible to forget the willing co-operation of my brother Natoo Panchal, Dr. Bhal Joshi, friends, colleagues students and other well wishers, who helped me when needed. A note of thanks is also due to those who spared their valuable time directly or indirectly to help me.

Mr. Rakeshbhai Shah of Rakesh Typo-Duplicating Works deserves a word of appreciation for offering his efficient and quick services as a Typist and Mr. Kamleshbhai for printing and binding works.

To all those mentioned above and to my wife Usha Panchal, I express my deep sense.

Ahmedabad.
