ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Because of the LORD’s great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness” - Lamentations 3:22-23.

With these words, I thank Jesus Christ, who gives me good health and strength to do the research work successfully.

It is my first duty to thank and honor my parents, Mr. I. Selvan Christyraj & Mrs. S. Joyce and often this work are dedicated to my beloved parents, whose strength and determination have imprinted every aspect of my life throughout the studies. I also thank my sister Mrs S. Jasmine Ebaneser & my brother Mr. S. Jackson Durairaj for their constant support in making the decisions and their criticism, which make my life a successful and fruitful one. In addition to this, my life was shaped by many people through their experience, which teaches me a lot of lessons during the studies [2008 – 2013]. It is important and my privilege to list, all the people who were behind in this research work.

First of all I especially thank my guide, Prof. Sivasubramaniam Sudhakar for his valuable guidance, support, criticism and encouragement to complete my thesis work successfully. I have appreciated the way, he provided much needed direction for the project, which took on many unique and challenging questions, to solve it successfully with his guidance.

In addition, I thank Prof. Kasi Pitchumani, Dean of Natural Products Chemistry, Madurai Kamaraj University and his research scholar Mr. V. Tharmaraj for their constant support throughout the analysis part of fluorochrome in the earthworm, Eudrilus eugeniae.
It is my immense pleasure to thank Prof. Seppo Vainio and their teammates, because as a part of the thesis was guided by him in the Department of Medical Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, Institute of Biomedicine, Oulu Center for Cell Matrix Research, University of Oulu, Finland. Kind hearted Prof. Seppo Vainio, provide space in his laboratory, purchase needed stuffs to do the research work successfully.

It is my memorable and thrilling experience that I can stay even at the temperature -34°C. Now it is the time and my responsibility to thank some of my friends in Finland, Dr. Subramanian Murugan, Mr Sandanam (a man from my home town), Mr Ganapathy Raman, Mr Muthu, Miss. Saranya and Mr. Umamaheswaran, they all give such a wonderful fine environment to do research in Oulu, Finland.

My Sincere thanks to faculty members Dr. S. Umamaheswari, Dr. D. Ganesh, Dr. R. Soranam, Dr. S. Emmanuel Joshua Jebasingh and Dr. M. Uthiralingam of Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, for their constant support and kind help during the research period. My special thanks to our Department official members, Mr. A. Amal das, Mr Vanarajan and Mrs. R. Pitchamal, for their constant support and help, which fulfills all the research & official stuffs politely.

I thank the official members from the Planing and Development section (P&D), Finance section (FO), University Development Section (UDS), Research Section and other officials for their constant direct & indirect support, which make the official things quite calm and simple.

It is important to acknowledge the funding agency, which is the backbone for my thesis by providing the financial assistance. First I thank, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University for providing the fellowship in the form of University Stipendiary Research fellow (USRF) program. My deepest gratitude to University Grants Commission (UGC) for providing the fellowship through Maulana Azad National Fellowship (MANF) scheme and I am in the fellowship as MANF-JRF and MANF-SRF as MOMA scholar (Ministry of Minority Affairs) from 2010 onwards. In addition, it is my duty to thank CIMO (Center for International Mobility Organization) for providing funds to do research in Finland. I highly appreciate the scheme, Indo-Finnish scholarship pool for their financial assistance towards the student exchange program.

My special thanks to my best friend, Mr. S. Palaniappan, for their moral support and advice throughout my Ph.D studies.

It is my personal obligation to thank my PG friends, S. Jackson Durairaj, C. Bala Amarnath, K. Kannadasan, R. Shanker, H. Sridhar, T. Saravanan, J. Karthikeyan, M. Kumaravel, M. Nagaraj and M. Manikandan for their inspiration and possible help during my Ph.D studies.

I thank Dr. Ramesh, Dr. Mophine kani, Dr. Sathish Prabu, Dr. Selvakumar, Dr. Thilaga, Dr. Mercy, and Dr. Sangeetha for their constant support and teaching statistical techniques. I won’t forget each and every information which I got from the doctorates.

My special and sensational thanks to Research Scholars Mr. S. Jackson Durairaj, Mr. H. Sridhar, Mr. R.M. Kalidas, Miss. Y. Beryl Vedha, Miss. J. Jegathambigai, Mr. R. Veeraragavan, Mr. Ramesh, Mr. M. Natarajan, Miss. G.D. Nino, Mr. S. Elaiyaraja, Mr. S. Dinesh Kumar and Mr. S. Nagoor Meeran Maiden.

Part time project students, whose presence in the department and their friendship make the lab environment always happy. It is the time to recall all of them, Mr. Arun from Kalasalingam University; Miss. Edith Arul Jane, Miss. K. Amutha and Mr. Ramar from Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore; Miss. Jeniva, Miss. Premanandhi, Miss. Vidhisha, Mr. Mariappan from Manonmaniam Sundaranar University.

Last but not least, it is my duty to thank Mr. Bala and Mr. Kalyana Sundaram for helping me in collecting earthworms during my research work.
