ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I expressed my gratitude to Dr. Wangkhem Nabakumar, Professor and Head of Anthropology Department, Manipur University for his kindness and guidance rendered upon me in pursuing my present research work.

I am immensely indebted to my supervisor, Dr. Soibam Jibonkumar Singh for his guidance and encouragements. Without his able and active guidance, this work would not have been possible.

I am also grateful to all the faculty members of Anthropology Department, Manipur University for nurturing my interest in the present research work.

I thank the Librarians of Central Science Library and Central Library of Delhi University for giving me the permission to visit their esteemed libraries and allowed me to get copies of some valuable books and internationally reputed journals.

I am also grateful to UGC, New Delhi for awarding me a four year’s research Fellowship.

I thank the people of Manipuri Muslims inhabited in different areas of Manipur particularly the informants of the present study for their valuable help and co-operation during my field work.

I also thank the Librarian of Manipur University for availing me the Library whenever I need.
I am very much indebted to Soibam Birajit for his active co-operation both mentally and physically during my research work.

I also thank Salam Shantikumar, Department of Statistics, Manipur University with whom I shared meaningful discussions especially during my data analysis by means of SPSS Software.

I extend my gratitude to the Indian Science Congress Association, Kolkata for giving me the opportunity to present a paper in relation to my present research area in the 98th Congress held at Chennai during 3-7 January, 2011.

Lastly, but not the least I am thankful to my parents, brothers, sister, friends and relatives whose names are not mention here for their encouragements and financial support during my course of study. It is my pleasure to thank my spouse, Memthoi and sons, Olivo and Tomthin for bearing the burden of my family in absence of me during the four years long journey of my research work.

It is my belief that this study may be helpful to those who are interested in understanding the application of Physical anthropology in the identification of unknown persons.
