Comprehension (20)

Passage (Unseen) (5)

Daruma Kite

The Daruma Kie is made in the memory of Daruma. Daruma was a Buddhist saint. He arrived in China from Japan while propagating Buddhism.

It is believed that by flying the Daruma kites, the wishes are fulfilled. People, in order to realise their wishes, first fly the kites with 2 eyes. In the Hatio city, the Daruma kites were flown for the first time. The Daruma kite requires a tail to maintain its balance while flying.

Answer the given questions after reading the passage -

1. Who was Daruma ?

2. Where did he go from Japan ?
3. Why do people fly the kites with one eye?

4. In which city was the first Daruma kite flown?

5. What does Daruma kite require?

(b) Passage (seen)

A sweet cooing of the nightingale was heared on the taped cassette. It was followed by a conversation in gruff voices. They were discussing the release of the kidnapped child for a large ransom. The names of Jaggu and Sukhdeo were heared again and again.

Praising the children for their wonderful work, Mr. Sharma rushed to the police station. He carried with him the recorded proof. The police force was immediately sent to rescue the kidnapped child.

Answer the given questions:

1. What was heared on the taped cassette?

Handwriting (5)

Q.4  Read the given passage and write in cursive handwriting:

God

God is one only and not two or more. Different people call Him by different names, some as Allah, some as Christ, and others as Krishna, Siva etc. It is like the water in a lake. Some drink it at one place and call it 'jal', others at another place and call it 'paani' and still others at a third place and call it 'water' it is one and the same thing. Each religion is only a path, leading to God, as rivers come from different directions and ultimately become one in the ocean.
