ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Throughout the tiresome period of research, a number of people stood by me and were of great help. Here, I would like to record my sincere gratitude and appreciation to all those who provided help, support, and encouragement, enabling me to complete my Ph.D. thesis. First of them all is my research guide, Dr. H. Nanje Gowda, Principal, Yuvaraja’s College, University of Mysore. It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude and heartfelt thanks to him for his unfailing support, practical guidance, and fatherly attitude right from the beginning until this work came to life.

I would also like to express my deep sincere gratitude to Dr. G. Kotreshwar, Professor and Chairperson of BOS and Dean of Faculty of Commerce and Management, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, for his valuable help and cooperation throughout my course of study. My sincere thanks also go to all Professors and Assistant Professors in the department of studies in Commerce, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri. The working staff of the department offices and in all the offices of the University were very cooperative and friendly, so thank you all.

I express my gratitude to my mother, brother, parents-in-law, for building up an unwavering confidence in me, constantly encouraging, supporting and motivating me to carry out this research. I express my thanks to my husband Mr. Nandeep for his encouragement and help. I express my thanks to my children Ms. Shraddha Nandeep and Master Sachin Nandeep for their patience in coping up with my tight work schedule and for their sincere prayer and support.

I am also grateful to all my relatives for their moral support. I would like to express my thanks all my friends who supported me to carry out my research work.

My special thanks to The Principal, all the Head of all the department, all the faculty and staff members of Bangalore Institute of Technology, for their co-operation and support.

Finally, my thanks go to everyone who helped me directly or indirectly in my research and whose names have not been included because the list is endless.
