ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This research work was a humble endeavour from my part to bring into light certain untraced and unknown facts regarding the Ecological Aspects Of Kapla beel, A Freshwater Wetland in Barpeta District, Assam.

At the very outset, I offer my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. B.K. Baruah, Lecturer (SL. Grade) in zoology, Cotton College, who conceptualized my effort and idea in the form of research work and took constant care, supervised and guided me throughout the study period.

I am greatly indebted and offer my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Jatin Kalita, Department of Zoology, Gauhati University, for his guidance, kind supervision and took constant care throughout the study.

I offer my gratitude and thanks to Prof. D.K. Sharma, Head of the Department of Zoology, Guahati University, for providing me with the necessary laboratory facilities and administrative help.

I offer my gratitude and thanks to Dr. Saibal Sen Gupta, Head of the Department of Zoology, Arya Vidyapeeth Collage, Guwahati for providing me the computer facilities and statistical application incorporated in the thesis.

I offer my sincere thanks to my friend Mr. Paresh Sarmah for his kind co-operation and help me in the field work during my study.

I am also thankful to circle officer, Sarthabari revenue circle for providing me the map of Kapla beel and adjoining areas.

I would like to sincerely acknowledge the help and support offered by Lessee (mahalder), Mr. Nripen Das, fishermen and boatman for helping me in the collection of data and experimental samples from the beel.

I am very grateful to kind neighbouring villagers of Kapla beel for their kind co-operation and assistance.

I extend my thanks to my colleagues A. Dutta and A. Sarmah for their assistance during my study.

I am also thankful to Karuna Baruah, Lecturer, Department of mathematics, Barbhag College for this constant encouragement throughout the study.

I offer my thanks to Gokul Deka, who help me in the compiling of the thesis work.
I am extremely thankful to my mother Mrs. Nirupama Deka, wife Mrs. Manisha Deka and younger brother Mantu and Chintu for their kind support and constant encouragement during my study period. I would also like to thank my angel-like three years old daughter Bishalakhi whose innocent face ever-since her birth has boosted up me to complete my research work. In this context my sincere thanks go to sister-in-law Malabika Bhuyan for her help in my research work.

Lastly, my sincere gratitude goes to my late father, Hareswar Deka and father-in-law Late Jogendra Nath Bhuyan whose blessings have brought me to this stage.
