REFERENCES

1. ACI 234R-96, “Guide for the use of silica fume in concrete,” Reported by ACI Committee 234
References

19. www.concreteconstruction.net/ Effect of high temperature on hardened Concrete.
22. Eva Lubloy and Gyorgy L. Balazs, “Residual properties of fibre reinforced concrete after fire”. Published in BADEN 2009 5th Central European Congress on Concrete Engineering (pp 12-16)
23. Eva Lubloy and Gyorgy L. Balazs, “Reinforced concrete structure in and after fire”, Concrete Structure 2012 (pp 72-80)
25. Feiiceni Roberto & Gambarova P.G, “Effect of high temperature on the residual compressive strength of high strength siliceous concretes”. ACI Materials
An experimental investigation on the behaviour of steel fibre reinforced ternary blended concrete subjected to sustained elevated temperature.
An experimental investigation on the behaviour of steel fibre reinforced ternary blended concrete subjected to sustained elevated temperature.
References

53. Prakash K. B, Krishnamurthy B. S, “Effect of high temperature on addition of three industrial wastes as pozzolanas and rubber latex on the properties of Concrete” as stated in a well recognized site (www.nbmcw.com).

References

63. Sweta Goyal, Maneek Kumar and B.Bhattacharjee, “Potential benefits of incorporating fly ash in silica fume concrete” Indian Concrete Journal, Aug. 2008 (pp 38-46)

References

Catalogue References:

76. Catalogue from Elkems for its certified properties of silica fume.

77. Catalogue from 20 Microns for its certified properties of metakaolin.

78. Catalogue from Frosoc Chemicals for its certified properties of Conplast 430 superplasticizer.

79. Catalogue from Heidelberg cement for its certified properties of Ground granulated blast furnace slag.

80. Catalogue from Stewols for its certified properties of steel fibres.

81. Catalogue from Ultratech cement for its certified properties of cement.

82. Silica fume user manual

Books:

87. Neville A. M, “ Properties of material” Prentice Hall Publisher, Kindle Edition

89. Siddique Rafat, “Waste Materials and By-Products in Concrete” Springer Publication.
List of codes:
90. IS 456: 2000, “Plain and reinforced concrete”.
91. IS:10262-1982, “Recommended guide lines for concrete mix design.”
92. IS 10262: 2009, “Concrete mix proportioning - guidelines”.
93. IS 9103: 1999, “Concrete admixture specification”.
95. IS:516-1959, “Method of testing for concrete strength.”
98. IS 2386:1963, Part 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 “Method of test for aggregates for concrete”
104. IS 3812:2003, “Part-I Fly ash as a pozzolanic material”
105. IS 3812:2003, “Part-II Fly ash as an admixture”
106. IS 12269-1987, “Specifications for 53 Grade OPC”
107. IS 12089, “Requirements of GGBFS”

Website :
108. www.google.com

Softwares:
109. NCSS
110. MATLAB