Acknowledgements

At the very outset, I glorify to the God of knowledge for meaningful lesson and blessings in my life. Secondly, I am very grateful to my supervisor, Dr. Ng. Ibotombi for his valuable guidance during these years. His advice and encouraging words got me through this during difficult times. Thank you for your unflinching support. I am also thankful to Professor E. Bijoy Kumar for generously sharing ideas with me whenever needed. It is under his forceful advice that I can. To Dr. Bashanta Thoudam, I am very grateful for the countless times you spend to help me in collecting materials and computer aid. I remember and remain in my heart the support and encouragement I got from (late) Dr. Th. Biren Singh.

I enjoyed nearly one year of scholarship and financial support from UGC at the rate of Rs.5000 per month, without which this thesis would not have been a success. I have learned and got experienced where I teach in DON BOSCO COLLEGE, Maram. The lesson of Learning by Doing is known from the college. I also thanks to my colleagues, the numerous teaching and non-teaching staff of the college. I have met people who has become support system to me and made my stay and teaching an enjoyable one. I also acknowledge Miss K. Matia and Madam Puina Martha for their special help in better presentation of the thesis.

I would like to acknowledge the encouragement and supports I have received from all the Faculty members of the Economics department, Manipur University. During the course of interaction in the pre-thesis Submission seminar, I got the correction from Prof. Tombi, Associate Prof. Damodor, Assit. Prof. Ishorchantra and Solochana. I make used a lot of books which is very costlier one from the Manipur University Library. I am very helpful the facilities given by the MU Library.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. I got many help from many of my friends. All the MU friends and Staff of Don Bosco College, Maram, Thank you for your encouraging word and moral support.

My special thanks go to Lamnganbi. You are an awesome and the one behind me for the success.

Lastly, and most importantly, I dedicate this work to my parent and family for their support.
