ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It is my bounden duty to acknowledge the valuable services of those who helped me to complete this work. First of all, I am extremely thankful to my supervisor, Dr. M.T. Narayanan, Associate Professor, Department of History, Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady, for his efficient supervision and enduring encouragement. He was really a support to me and it was his sincere guidance and effort that enabled me to complete my work. I record my gratitude to Dr. N.J. Francis, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of History, for his encouragement and support to complete this work. I thank Dr. S. Sivadasan, former Head of the Department of the History, for the help accorded to me during the period of study. Moreover, I am also grateful to the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of History, Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that I remember Dr. Pius Malekandathil, Professor, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi, who has journeyed with me in this research from the beginning. His valuable advices and suggestions were of immense help to complete my work.

I express my sincere gratitude to the University Grants Commission for the sanction accorded to me for conducting research under the Faculty Improvement Programme. The support given by the Management of the Henry Baker College, Melukavu and especially by the Principal Dr. Abraham Daniel are also remembered with gratitude.

My grateful thanks to the Mother Generals of the four congregations, respective Provincial Superiors, and Mothers of the various convents who gave me permission to consult the records of the convent, otherwise I could not have carried out this work. The interest shown by them to help me in giving information about the congregation and their life in the convent and related activities were quite remarkable. Even though it is difficult to mention the names of all those sisters who helped me in this endeavour, rather it is necessary to mention the names of Sr. Mary Devis, Sr. Sibiya, Sr. Navya of CMC congregation; Sr. Gorethy, Sr. Grace Mary and Sr. Rani of FCC congregation; Sr. Elizabeth and Sr. Jyothi of SABS congregation, and Sr. Lissue Maria and Sr. Christy Arackathottam of SH congregation, who directed me to access the documents. I remember with gratitude all the sisters who helped me in this endeavour.

I value the assistance of different archives and libraries for pursuing the study. Archives, St. Teresa’s Convent, Koonammavu; Archives, CMC Generalate Aluva; Archives, CMC Provincial House Ernakulam; Archives, CMC Provincial House, Kolazhi Trichur; Archives, FCC Provincial House Changanacherry; Archives, FCC Provincial House, Kothamangalam; Archives, SABS Provincial House, Changanacherry; Mar Thomas Kurialacherry Museum and Archives Changanacherry and Archives, SHC Provincial House, Pala. It is also important to mention, The Archives of Amma magazine at Angamaly; The Archives of Sathya deepam magazine, Ernakulam; Archives of the Bishop Houses of Changanacherry, Ernakulam and Trichur; State Archives, Thiruvananthapuram and Regional Archives, Ernakulam. The services of libraries like, Department of History, Madras University; Centre for Development Studies Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala University Library, Thiruvananthapuram; C.H Mohammed Koya Library, University of Calicut; Department of History, University of Calicut; School of Social Science, M.G. University Kottayam; Dr. Thomas Mar Athanasius Memorial Orientation Centre, Manganam, Kottayam; Santhome Library Vadavathoor; CMS college Library, Kottayam; Placid Memorial Library Changanacherry; G.S.P.I Hosana Mount, Pala; Sahithya Academy, Trichur; Sameeksha Kalady and Library, Sree Sakaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady.

Many people have helped me in the course of my work. I owe much to Ani Tresa Ephrem, Assistant Professor SSUS, Kalady, for being with me, all throughout the course. I also thank Dr. V. J. Varghese, Dr. Sheeba K. M and Dr. Kochurani Abraham, for the timely suggestions and help. I remember Fr. Tijo Arukalil, Dr. Vincent Aerath and Dr. Biji Mol Thomas and Shinoy Jesinth for their timely help. I am happy to acknowledge the expert assistance of Joseph Thomas, Associate Professor, Department of Mathematics, Henry Baker College Melukavu, in preparing the diagrams for the work.

Without the help of my friends, this work would not have been completed. I remember with gratitude, the support given by my colleagues of the Department of History and English and also, Ajitha V. R, Disha V. J and Remi Prince. I also remember with warmth and gratitude Ms. Mary Thomas for her constant support. I thank A.G. Sreekumar, Channel G, for the final alignment of the thesis.

Indeed this is a momentous occasion to thank my parents, P.C. Paul and Anice Paul, for their lifelong support and the care given to me, in all my endeavours. My brothers, sister and also in-laws and relatives who were a constant inspiration, all throughout the period of work, are remembered with gratitude. I also use this occasion to express my gratitude to my mother-in-law, Mrs. Annakutty Varkey, who took much pain to support me in this endeavour. I am deeply indebted to my husband Gigi George and my daughters Anna Maria, Ann Treesa and Elsa Rose for the earnestness with which they supported me and to bear with me in the short comings of the daily life.

Above all, I thank God All Mighty, for every achievement in my life.

Beena Paul