ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Present research in the form of the thesis submitted here with I am very glad to acknowledge my indebted to all those persons who have helped me directly to indirectly and rendered active co-operation during my research work.

I would like to recognize the unseen blessings of Lord Shiva and Guru Maharaj Shree 1008 Baba Bankhandi Rushiji Maharaj who have always been a hidden source of inspiration and guidance for me. They have always lend helping hands to pull me up whenever I have fallen down.

I am very much grateful to my guide Dr. Dinesh J. Panchal (Retd. Associate Professor, Dept. of Psychology, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad) For his valuable guidance and help to complete my research work. During my research work he has provided constant guidance and encouragement, and motivation. This research has become possible because of his deep knowledge of subject, long experience of teaching and research. I shall be indebted to aim for the whole life.

I am also very much thankful to Dr. Vinodhbhai Patel (Rtd. Principal, Arts and Commerce College, Kapadvanj) and my dear friend Rosy Ajit Methew (Associate Professor Arts College, Kalol) who have encouraged and motivated me throughout my research work.

I am very much thankful to principals of the different schools for co-operating me in my research by allowing me to collect data from their school students.

I also express gratitude to my respected father Shri Natvarlal Parmar, my mother Smt. Kesarben Parmar, my Elder Brother Rajeshkumar Parmar, my sister in law Smt. Jyoti Parmar, my loving Nephew Smit and Richi who have always been a source of strength and moral booster for me.

This account would be incomplete without mention of my loving wife Shobhana, and both my loving kids Viraj and Yuvraj.

I also sincerely thankful to Mitul Patel, Darshan Desai & Deepak Solanki (PrintValley, 12 University Plaza) for their computer services.

Place :

Date : Rashmikant N. Parmar