ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my gratitude to the Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak for allowing me to undertake this research study. This Doctoral thesis has been supervised by Dr. H.J.Ghosh Roy and I am particularly grateful and thankful to Dr. Ghosh Roy for giving me a chance to work under his guidance. He not only guided me in this research but also provided the benefit of his rich experience in the study of Indian Corporate sector. He was always open to my views and provided motivation to perform best to my abilities. I am very thankful by heart for the time he took from his busy schedule and arranged meetings with me whenever required. Consultations with him were very useful as he discussed topics from all the aspects of the financial crisis. He constantly poured in with suggestions by providing me useful links and references related to my topic and referred me to several knowledgeable people.

This research project was completed in a supportive environment with the help of IMSAR family, specially Professor Neelam Jain, Dean & Director IMSAR and friends who are close to my heart. And I would like to acknowledge the support, motivation & suggestions provided by all the people around me.

I would also like to pay regards to Dr. Sanket Vij for providing his support and guidance whenever needed at any stage of this study.

Further, I must thank my husband, Mr. Sameer Dahiya, for his steady encouragement & moral support without which it could have never been possible to move ahead even a single step. The endless cooperation of my in-laws, Dr. Ranbir Singh Dahiya and Mrs. Braham Lata, and my parents, Sh. Azad Singh Siwach and Smt. Roashni Devi, has enabled me to complete this research work.

Finally, it was the exceptional support of my little daughter, Avishi, that she was always understanding towards my academic efforts and always allowed me to devote time for research. I dedicate this research work specially to my angel Avishi.
