Acknowledgement

Bringing out this study in the present form has been an enriching and challenging experience. Facing this challenge, the great many number of people, with their timely intervention assorted way to this thesis from the very inception, deserved special mention. Here, I would like to remember and record my reverence to all of them who have contributed directly or indirectly to make the study a reality.

First and foremost, I thank God Almighty for giving me insights and a source of wisdom and power for guiding me throughout this research work.

Words are inadequate to express my sincere appreciation to my Supervisor and Research Guide Dr. Celine K. Scaria (Dr. Celine Sunny), Executive Director, Research Institute, Rajagiri College of Social Science, Kalamassery, Kochi for her continuous intervention and valuable guidance. Her dexterity and diligence complied with keen sense of observation have inspired me in pursuing my research.

I do humbly submit my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Varghese K. V., Director, Centre for Doctoral Research, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery, for his enduring support and encouragement as co-guide for the accomplishment of this academic pursuit.

I gratefully acknowledge Rev. Fr. O. J. Alex CMI, former Director, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences. The inspiring support he extended throughout the course of study paved the stepping stones in every stage of the study.

The principal of Rajagiri College of Social Sciences Dr. Joseph I. Injodey and Dr. Mary Venus Joseph, Dean and Administrator of Rajagiri College of Social Sciences were remembered with gratitude for rendering administrative support and permission to utilize the infrastructure of the institution for carrying out this study.

I am grateful to those resource persons whom I interacted during the research work and because of whom, this study has been wholesome. They are Advocate K. P. Prasannakumari, former Judge of family court of Malappuram having rendered to utilize infrastructure facilities and resources in the family court of Malappuram. Without her support, the study would not have started.

I am grateful to Dr. V. K. Radhakrishnan, M. D., DPM (NIMHANS) of Changanacherry (Vice President, World Association for Psychosocial Rehabilitation), who is a well known psychiatrist, and family therapist for imparting his rich experiences and valuable advice from the very inception.

I also place on record Mr. K. P. Muhammad, Principal Counselor, Family Court of Muvattupuzha, who is a scholar in family laws and family counseling for his support towards my pursuit of knowledge.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Dr. K. J. M. Namboodhiri M.B.B.S, DPM, former psychiatrist and senior consultant of District Hospital Malappuram for his contribution towards selecting the area of study.

I am indebted to Dr. M. Kannan, Principal, Madurai Institute of Social Sciences for rendering his unstinted support in carving out the technical body of the research work.

I am grateful to Late Dr. Mariamma Joseph and Prof. T. S. N. Pillai former professors of Loyola College of Social Sciences, Trivandrum for their assistance in this research work.
I thank Dr. John, former Head of the department of Sociology, Guruvayurappan College, Calicut for his valuable help and support during the research work.

I place on record my thankfulness to Dr. Muhammed Ismail, Chief Surgeon Moulana Hospital Perinthalmanna, Advocate Z. A. Sukal Khader and Abbas N. H., Retd. Physiotherapist, District Hospital Kottayam for their support and encouragement.

I gratefully remember Dr. Manju Joy of Mount Carmel Higher Secondary School Kanjikuzhy, Kottayam and Miss. Rajasree Psychiatric Social Worker, Trissur for their encouragement.

I am thankful to Dr. George S. Palamattom, Superintendent District Hospital Kottayam and Dr. Rafik Anzar A. S., Psychiatrist for their timely support.

I thank Ms. Eliyamma Vijayan, Director of Sakhi Resource Centre, Thiruvananthapuram for providing me with a host of information and literature on divorce. I thank Dr. Norvey Paul Vithayathil, Director, Vincetian Network of Social Work Agencies, Angamali for his support during the study.

I remember with gratitude Mrs. Agitha of ‘Anuvashi’ Calicut for supporting me with useful information pertaining to Divorce among Muslim Women.

I do render my special thanks to Ms. Gracykutty Varkey former HOD of English department, B. K. College Amalagiri.

Finally, I thank all my respondents and Key Personnel, who furnished valuable information and made this work a reality.