REFERENCES
References

(2) Anand and Dave (1979) Intelligence, parents’ encouragement, emotional environment, educational facilities and facilities are related with educational achievement.

(3) Bhaggavati (1983) there is a relation between educational level and education of students of group and culture of achievement motivation and self-discovery.

(5) Cathy Hall, Jeremy Dickerson, David Batts, Paul Kauffmann, and Michael Bosse Are We Missing Opportunities to Encourage Interest in STEM Fields?

(6) Chaudhary Vipul (2009) Sudy of achievement motivation of the student of secondary and higher secondary school on the basis of students’ gender, standard, mother’s education, father’s occupation and the area of residence.

(7) Chauhan Priti B. (2006) Study the achievement motivation of the students with reference to gender and study.

(8) Dave Usha J. (2009) Out of 100 students of standard 9th of Vijaya Nagar area, secondary school. 55 boys and 45 girls were selected.

(9) Dave C.B and others (1986), “Statistics in psychology”, Viral Prakashan, A’ bad Ch.1 and 2 page.1 to 30

(14) Eric Schaps, Ph.D. The Role of Supportive School Environments in Promoting Academic Success.

(16) Gupta (1983) A study of personality Characteristics of 9th grade over and under achieving boys and girls of different levels of achievement motivation.

(17) Gyanoni (1984) Reaction of achievement level on an frustration was observed.

(19) Jansari and Solanki Study of students’ vocational aptitude and its relation with their fathers’ vocation.

(22) Joshi R. (1983) Study of psycho-social factors of aptitude of students studying in the higher secondary school.

(23) Lalitha (1982) There is relation between achievement motivation and parents’ understanding behavior.

(24) Lubinski, Benbow, & Ryan (1995) show that there is little change in interests for gifted adolescents obtained at age 13 to their interests at age 28.

(25) Mansuri (1986) Study the achievement motivation of the students of 5th and 6th grade on the basic psychological and social facts.

(39) Rabari R.B. (2009) study of achievement motivation of the boys and girls studying in the standard 10th in the context of their father’s education.

(48) Singh (1973) the influence of long time lacking is observed on the level of ambition.

(49) Sinha (1986) To know the relation among achievement motivation, Intellect and achievement in mathematics.

(50) Tipton R.M. (1976) Study of women’s social and vocational interest and opinion regarding it.

(54) Wu-Tien Wu, National Taiwan Normal University (2000) Vocational interests and career maturity of male high school students talented in math and science

(64) Mehta, P. (1969). The Achievement motive in high school boys, New Delhi, NCERT.