ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Author finds lacking himself in expression to extend his profound sense, respect and deepest gratitude to his guide Dr. Pratap B. Deshmukh, B.E, M.E, PhD Director SSCET Bhilai, whose ideals, morals and dedication for teaching, research & encouragement has influenced him greatly. The author considers himself fortunate to be associated with such an enthusiastic and world renowned scientist. Moreover, his guidance and appreciation from time to time was much to give impact the author to his own thoughts and understanding making him believe that all was accomplished was his own efforts for which he will remain indebted to him and his supervision through out the course of this work are forever remembered.

The author wishes to thank Late Dr. A.C. Rao, B.E. (Hons.), M.E (ICE), M.E (Mech. Design), Ph.D., DSc for his inspiration & encouragement during his life time.

The author gratefully acknowledges the cooperation, love and affection showered on him by Shri Babban Rao Deshmukh & Smt. Kamal Deshmukh, He further is grateful to Smt. Sulbha Deshmukh, wife of Dr. P.B. Deshmukh and Ku. Nandita sweet daughter of Dr. P.B. Deshmukh and Shri Viswas Deshmukh nephew of Dr. P. B. Deshmukh who extended their full and unconditional support to him.

It is very difficult to express gratitude individually to many friends and elders who have extended their co-operation and help during the course of this work. The author is grateful to all of them particularly to Shri I.P. Mishraji, President of Shri Gangajali Education Society for his tremendous support & encouragement throughout our endeavor. The author wishes to thank Director, Prof. B. S. Narang, Principal Dr. M. K. Kowar and Vice Principal Dr. Arun Arora for granting permission to use the facilities available at Bhilai Institute of Technology, Durg.

The author wishes to thanks Shri Santanu Banerjee, System Analyst for the neat and timely production of this thesis with near perfection and neat execution.

Gratitude goes to all his family members specially to his father Shri Abhay Ram Tiwari and mother Late Smt. Rekha Tiwari who spared their valuable time and energy during the period of this work.

And at last not least, the author wishes to thank his wife Smt. Dipti Tiwari and his son Aakash Tiwari who had been patient and helped a lot while carrying out the research. The author further wants to thank all the near and dear relatives and friends.
