

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS AND SYMBOLS

LIST OF STATUTES

LIST OF CASES

Chapter 1: The World of Cyberspace

1.1	Introduction	01
1.2	Law and Technology	03
1.3	The Advent of Internet	05
1.3.1	Nature of Internet	11
1.3.2	Internet Infrastructure for Data Transfer	12
1.3.3	Internet and Society	15
1.4	Why Cyber Law?	16
1.5	Regulation of Cyberspace	23
1.5.1	Key Regulatory issues for Sovereign States	26
1.5.2	Regulation via Hardware	28
1.5.3	Regulation via Software	29
1.5.4	Application of Common Law Principles for Internet Regulation	31
1.5.5	Private Regulation	32
1.6	Human Right in Cyberspace	33
1.7	Protecting Human Dignity in the Digital Age	41
1.7.1	Main Challenges	42
1.7.2	The Commercialization of the Internet	43
1.8	Hypotheses and Research Questions	44
1.9	Methodology	46
1.10	Significance of Research	47
1.11	Structure of the Research Work	48

Chapter 2: Freedom of Speech in Cyberspace

2.1	Introduction	52
2.2	Freedom of Speech and Expression – Justifications	53
2.2.1	Freedom of Conscience, Personal identity and Self-fulfillment	54
2.2.2	Discovery and Truth – Market place of ideas	55
2.2.3	Democracy and Self-governance	58
2.2.4	Right to Self-expression	62
2.3	The Nature of Free Speech in International and National Law	64
2.4	Restrictions on Freedom of Speech	67
2.4.1	Blocking Internet Blogs - Public Interest as a ground for restriction	71
2.4.2	Free Speech – American Jurisprudence	73
2.5	Free Speech Protection in Cyberspace	74
2.5.1	Channels of Free Speech in Cyberspace and Media Freedom	75
2.5.2	Community Content Creation Tools in Cyberspace	80
2.6	Content Regulation – Hicklin Speech – Sexually Explicit Material	81
2.6.1	Why Pornography is bad?	89
2.6.2	Feminist Theory of Obscenity – Women & Pornography	91
2.6.3	Child Pornography	93
2.7	Online ‘Porn Panic’ – Hailing Adults Right to Porn	95
2.7.1	The Child Online Protection Act of 1998	101
2.8	Regulation of Sexually Explicit Material in Cyberspace – Analysis	105
2.9	Conclusion	111

Chapter 3: Cyber Defamation, Anonymity and Hate Speech

3.1	Introduction	113
3.2	The Nature of Defamation	114
	3.2.1 Right against Defamation – A Human Right	115
3.3	Defamation in Cyberspace	116
3.4	Liability of Internet Service Providers	118
	3.4.1 Case Law Development – Conflicting decisions	120
	3.4.2 ISP Distributor or Publisher? Immunity under CDA	125
3.5	Corporate Cybersmear and Employer’s Liability	129
3.6	Suing Anonymous Defendants for Internet Defamation	134
3.7	John Doe Concept	135
	3.7.1 Standards for Protecting Anonymous Internet Speech	137
3.8	Threatening Speech	137
3.9	Hate Speech	143
	3.9.1 Hate Speech and the Law	144
	3.9.2 Content Neutral Standard – R.A.V v St. Paul	148
	3.9.3 Hate Speech – International Perspective	151
3.10	Conclusion	153