ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, praises and thanks to the God, the Almighty, for his showers of blessings throughout my research work to complete the research successfully.

It is my privilege to express my earnest gratitude to those who guided and supported me to accomplish the research work for Doctoral of Philosophy. Such a research work would have been impossible without the support of family, relatives, friends and well-wishers. Words will not be enough to express my gratitude to them. I am immensely grateful to all those who have helped me, supported and encouraged me in visible and invisible manner and this acknowledgement is just a token of my utmost thankfulness.

I express my profound sense of gratitude to my guide and mentor Dr. H N Pandya, Professor & Head, Department of Electronics, Saurashtra University, Rajkot. I am extremely thankful to him for his insightful guidance and kind and encouraging attitude that made this research work a pleasant journey. His encouragement, support and cooperation as a guide can neither be matched nor be expressed into words. I profusely thank him for having spared his time to discuss with me several questions and ideas that evolved in my mind from time to time, and for having initiated and stimulated my research interests.

I would like to thank Fr. Joseph V A, Principal Christ College, Rajkot for his constant support. I thank all my colleagues and friends at Christ College, Rajkot, and R P Bhalodia College, Rajkot for their cooperation and support. I am also thankful to Dr. Yogesh R Ghodasara, for his motivation and encouragement.

I dedicate my Ph. D. to the lifelong struggle and hard work of my parents Shri Himatlal V Rughani and Smt. Anjali H Rughani. They really stayed in the worst case scenario and helping me out in every trouble that I was facing throughout my life, I will never be able to lend words to their sacrifices.
I am very much grateful to my wife Kalindi and my daughter Krisha, who have been constant source of inspiration for me. They were kind enough in understanding my responsibilities and making sacrifices in every possible manner in seeing me through my dissertation all these years.

I am also thankful to my elder sister Jigishadidi and younger brother Vimal, who have been the inexhaustible source of support right throughout this journey.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of this Thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention personally one by one.
