My friends deserve sincere thanks for consistently reminding me and helping me to keep up my spirit at the time I felt exhausted and dull. They have been a live support.
My humble thanks to my parents, Mrs. Jyotsana and Mr. Chandu Patel and my in-laws, Mrs. Renu and Mr. Bharat Yagnik. They have supported me in all and any manner possible. It is they, who taught me to read, write and work hard sincerely and honestly. I would not forget my sister Lt. Kanan Mandaviya at this moment who has been a constant spiritual support today too.

My husband Mr. Raju Yagnik has always been my backbone during the days of collecting and compiling material and putting it in the paper. My daughter Varda, allowed me to spare time for my work with a smile on her face. My sincere most thanks to both my dear ones.

Last of all, but never ever the least, I thank almighty God for giving me the strength, supports and opportunity to go ahead with my research work.
