ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present work is the outcome of the struggle for about five years, since I have been associated with the Department of Yogic Studies, Dr. Hari Singh Gour Vishwavidhyalaya, Sagar (M.P.) At this behest, I would take this opportunity to acknowledge all those who have guided, helped and inspired me in my work. It is my proud privilege to first mention the name of Dr. Ganesh Shankar, my Guru and guide for the present research work. In fact, it is he who has shown me a new path and direction to life. After my post graduation diplomas in yoga, it was Dr. Ganesh Shankar who inspired me to work in Yoga. Being a brahmin boy and interested in religion and ancient Indian cultural heritage, this was a great opportunity for me to work in the field. I am heartily thankful to him for his inspiration, guidance and for the faith shown on me in all aspects of work. It has been a worldly achievement for me to work with a person a “Karma Yogi” who has risen to become the Director of the Central Council for Research in Yoga & Naturopathy, an autonomous body of the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Government of India, New Delhi. I once again thank him for the time he spared despite being busy over heads of the organisation in which he has worked.

Secondly, it shall be fair on my part to mention the name of Dr. Hari Singh Gour the founder of this Vishwavidhyalaya. I and the lacs of students past and present who are benefited with the fact of being able to easily get access to higher education in this undeveloped area of Madhya Pradesh owe due regard and honour to the True son of Goddess Saraswati, Dr. Gour I made this special reference of Dr. Gour in remembering his vision of education to all, the wisdom of his understanding that education should be made available to each and everyone and specially in an area which is known to be backward due to lack of industry, transportation and education.

I shall also take up this opportunity to remember my late grandmother Mrs. Kaushaliya Devi, who wanted to see me complete my thesis in front of her eyes. Also I thank my grand father Pandit K.C. Korpal, my parents Mrs. Rani & Mr. Vinod, my uncles and aunts, who have blessed and encouraged me to take this challenging work, younger brothers and specially my sisters Ku. Shikha & Ku. Namrata who have helped in my writing and proof work of this thesis.
Also a special mention is due to the experts and teachers of yoga who have visited the department and whom I have met. They have inspired me to work on this subject a lot. I also thank the present Head of the department, Dr. U.S. Gupta for encouraging me to take this work seriously as also Sh. R.R.Gurjar of the department.

Lastly, I am thankful to Shri Raghuraj Singh who has helped me by typing the thesis and made this presentation look good. In the end, I shall fail in my duty if I am not to mention all those who have inspired & helped me in my work directly or indirectly.
