CHAPTER-I
General Introduction

CHAPTER-II
(A) Philosophy and History of Consumer Protection with special reference to India.

1) Introduction 9
2) Philosophy of Consumerism 10
3) Why to protect consumers 23
4) The concept of market place 25
5) Historical Development 30
6) Cases 61
7) Conclusion 68

CHAPTER-II
(B) Meaning and Scope of Consumerism

1) Introduction 70
2) Aims of consumer movement 74
3) Commitment to consciousness 75
4) Rights of Consumer 82
5) The right to be protected against marketing of goods which are hazardous to life and property. 84
6) The right to be informed about the quality, quantity and price. 84
7) The right to be assured and access to authority of goods of competitive price. 85
8) The right to be heard. 86
9) The right to redressal. 87
10) The right to consumer education. 87
CHAPTER - III

Public interest litigation and protection of consumers with special reference to the role of consumer protection associations:

1. Introduction. 89
2. Traditional view of locus-standi. 91
3. Exceptions to the strict rules of locus-standi. 92
4. Liberality of approach—recent—high court and supreme court cases. 93
5. Principles evolved. 112
6. Some problems plaguing public interest litigation. 114
7. Issues and Challenges. 118
8. Conclusion. 124

CHAPTER - IV

Standard form contracts, exemption clauses and problems of consumers:

1. Introduction. 127
2. The writing must be contractual document. 132
3. Incorporation of exemption clauses. 136
4. Exemption clauses when permissible. 145
5. Unreasonableness. 148
6. Excluding liability for breach of fiduciary duty. 152
7. Excluding Liability for fraud. 152
8. Over-riding undertaking. 153
9. Misrepresentation. 154
10. Judicial control of exemption clauses in India. 155
11. Exemption clauses and third parties. 159
12. Conclusion. 172
CHAPTER - V

Contract and tort based remedies available to consumers in India.

(A) CONTRACT BASED REMEDIES

1. Introduction. 182
2. Provisions. 184
3. Drawbacks. 186
4. Suggestions. 188
5. Conclusion. 189

(B) TORT BASED REMEDIES

1. Introduction. 190
2. Provisions. 191
3. Drawbacks. 217
4. Illustrative Cases. 220
5. Suggestions. 225
6. Conclusion. 227

CHAPTER - VI

The consumer Protection Act, 1986 and Protection of consumers - some highlights.

1. Introduction. 228
2. Formation of councils & its objects. 231
3. Complaint against defective goods and service. 246
4. Consumer Organisations. 262
5. Drawbacks. 266
6. Cases. 269
7. Suggestions. 277
8. Conclusion. 282
CHAPTER VII

A critical study of certain major acts effecting consumers:

(1) COMPANIES ACT, 1956.
   (A) Introduction.
   (B) Provisions.
   (C) Drawbacks.
   (D) Cases.
   (E) Suggestions.
   (F) Conclusion.

(2) MONOPOLIES AND RESTRICTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT - 1969:
   (A) Introduction.
   (B) Provisions
   (i) Costly Proceedings.
   (iii) Amendment - Affecting M.R.T.P. Act. (Unfair Trade Practice)
   (iv) Control of Restrictive Trade Practices.
   (v) Prevention of concentration of Economic Power.
   (C) Drawbacks.
   (D) Cases.
   (E) Suggestions.
   (F) Conclusion.

(3) THE PREVENTION OF FOOD ADULTERATION ACT, 1954.
   (A) Introduction.
   (B) Provisions:
   (i) Importance of legislation for preventing food adulterations.
(ii) Interpretation of Statutes. 362
(iii) Definitions. 364
(iv) Prohibition of import of certain articles of Food. 371
(v) Warranty. 372
(vi) Penalties. 373
(C) Drawbacks. 374
(D) Cases. 381
(E) Suggestions 395
(F) Conclusion 403

(4) POLLUTION AND CONSUMERS i.e. ENVIRONMENT

PROTECTION ACT; 402

A) Introduction. 403

B) Provisions: 403

(i) Exclusive - Environmental legislation 404

(ii) Constitution of Central Board and State Board etc. 405

(iii) Miscellaneous Legislation. 406

(iv) Judicial control of pollution. 411

C) Drawbacks. 423

D) Some Illustrative Cases. 432

E) Suggestions. 445

F) Conclusion. 452

(5) THE DRUGS AND COSMETICS ACT - 1940

A) Introduction. 455

B) Provisions: 455

(i) Definitions of Drugs, Mis-branded Drugs, Adulterated Drugs, Spurious Drugs. 455
(ii) Prohibition of Import of Certain Drugs.

(iii) Prohibition of manufacture and sale of certain Drugs.

(C) Drawbacks.

(D) Cases.

(E) Suggestions.

(F) Conclusion.

(6) THE ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES ACT 1955.

(A) Introduction.

(B) Provisions

(i) Meaning of Essential Commodity

(ii) Food - Crops.

(iii) Sugar Etc.

(C) Drawbacks.

(D) Cases.

(E) Suggestions.

(F) Conclusion.

(7) THE SALE OF GOODS ACT 1930.

(A) Introduction.

(B) Provisions

(i) Conditions and Warranties.

(ii) Exceptions.

(iii) Sale under Trade Names.

(C) Drawbacks.

(D) Cases.

(E) Suggestions.

(F) Conclusion.
STANDARDS OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

ACT. 1976

(A) Introduction.

(B) Provisions

(1) Meaning of calibration, false weight, false package, person, premises, seal, weighing instrument.

(C) Drawbacks.

(D) CASES

(E) Suggestions.

(F) Conclusion.

CHAPTER - VIII

CONCLUSION - SOME SUGGESTIONS.

APPENDIX - 1

QUESTIONNAIRE.

APPENDIX - 2

BIBLIOGRAPHY.

1) List of Reports.

2) List of Books.

3) List of Experts to whom Questionnaire was circulated.

...