PREFACE

The concept of microfinance study has appreciably changed in nature and content over the years. It is no longer considered an assortment of all sorts of arbitrary facts and figures to choose from. Instead, it is now increasingly becoming more of a systematic, purposeful, and objective study of a wide range of disciplines, cultural variance, self helper groups, microfinance institute, value chain of their working, Grammeen Bank Contribute a lot for combating poverty; socially and economically develop the weaker section. I focus all over position of micro finance with reference to four microfinance institution study was conducted.

The research study is divided into six chapters the first Chapter is based on Introduction to Microfinance. The second Chapter based on Review of Literature. The third Chapter based on Research Methodology. The fourth Chapter Introduction to Selected Microfinance Institutions these are National Bank for agricultural and Rural Development (NABARD), Small Industrial Development Bank of India (SIDBI), Self Employed Women’s Association (SEWA), Tribhuvandas Foundation (TF). The fifth Chapter is on a comparative study of selected Microfinance Institutes. And the last Chapter is on Conclusion and Suggestion. At end bibliography also mention with related websites. I have published some of the articles which are related to my Ph.D. study. Articles are attached in annexure of my thesis.

Mr. GAURANGKUMAR C. BAROT.