ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my sincere gratitude and veneration to my Research Supervisor Dr. K. Rathnaiah, Ph.D., Reader, Department of Sociology, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati for his invaluable and stimulating comments and painstaking guidance and for the constant encouragement during the progress of this work. But for his generosity and magnanimity, it would not have been possible for me to complete the work in time.

I am thankful to Prof.M.S.N.Reddy, Head, Department of Sociology, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati for providing necessary facilities and help during my research work.

It is my privilege to thank Dr. S. Bhaskar, Reader, Prof. D. Venkateswarlu and Dr. M. Hanumantha Rao, Department of Sociology, S.V.University, Tirupati for their help without which this work would not have been completed.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Dr.B.Rama Murthy, Dr.M.P.Narasimha Raju, Dr. V. Reddeppa Naidu, Mr.K.Vinod Kumar and Dr.G. Stanley Jayakumar, Department of Sociology for their co-operation and help in various ways.

The unstinted co-operation in the field work has been greatly facilitated by the Commissioner, Juvenile Welfare and Correctional Administration, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad and the Superintendent Mrs.Daisy Rao and all the Staff Members of the Govt. Juvenile Home-cum-Special Home and Observation Home for Girls, Hyderabad. I am greatly indebted to them for their co-operation and help.

I am highly thankful to the Bureau of Police Development and Research and National Crime Records Bureau, Ministry of Home Affairs, New Delhi and State Crime Records Bureau, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad for providing me the necessary data and the Director, Staff members, Regional Institute of Correctional Administration Bagayam, Vellore for providing me necessary library facilities.
I am greatly obliged by all the Delinquent Girls (Respondents) who spent their valuable time in answering my questions and narrated their life stories willingly and innocently. I cannot forget them. For their help and co-operation. I owe my debt of gratitude to them.

I thank Dr. Hemalatha, Professor, P.G.Department of Law, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati for her valuable guidance and suggestions.

I owe much to my uncle Dr.C.N.Sekhar and aunti Dr.Sunitha, for their help and co-operation rendered to me during the field work at Hyderabad and also my heart felt thanks to my uncle Prof. B.Balasubramanyam and my aunti B.Pullamma and my cousins Prabhu Nandan and Vibhu Vardhan for their encouragement and affection extended towards me.

I express my deep sense of reverence and gratitude towards my parents Late B.V.Naarappa Setty and Smt. B.Nagarathnamma who were a source of constant inspiration, encouragement and moral support and for the belief they had in me.

I offer my gratitude and love to my brother B. Sreenivas Kumar, B.A., my sister-in-law B. Sukanya, my sister B.Usha Rani and my brother-in-law B.Sreedhar,B.E. for their kind cooperation, moral support and motivation that has inspired me to realise my interest.

There are many times in such projects when the clock beats time and again and you run out of energy and you just want to finish it once and for ever. Chi.Nikitha and Chi. Dharani Krishna made me endure such times with their unfailing humour and moral support.
