ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am profoundly grateful to Dr. R. U. Sidwai, Reader, Department of Political Science, Aligarh Muslim University for his constant and painstaking help and guidance in the course of my research work.

I am also deeply indebted to Professor S. A. H. Naqvi, Head of the Department of Political Science, Aligarh Muslim University for providing me an opportunity to work on this important phase of Muslim political thought.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to a number of my friends for making very useful suggestions and for their careful reading of the manuscript and to some of them for the inspiration in completing my work.

In conclusion I wish to express my deep indebtedness to my parents to whom I dedicate this thesis.
