ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Praise to the Almighty God who guided me towards the fruitful completion of this doctoral thesis.

I am very grateful to express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to my guide Dr. P.S. Chandrakumar, Principal (Retd.), Meston College of Education, Royapettah, Chennai for his expertise instruction, valuable guidance, timely help and encouragement during the research period. He was a constant source of inspiration from the selection of the research topic till its completion.

I owe my gratitude to my Co-Guide Dr. S. Mohan, the Director of Thavathiru Kundrakudi Adigalar College of Education for Women, Kundrakudi, Sivagangai District, who made this experiment more meaningful by offering candid suggestions at different phases of its execution.

I am grateful to Dr. P. Prema, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Alagappa University, Karaikudi for her constant help in my research work.

I also thank M/s. Krithika Computers, Palayamkottai for the neat execution of this Ph.D. Dissertation.

With deep sense of love, I acknowledge the innumerable acts of my family members, which have helped me immensely in completion of this dissertation.

My profound thanks are due to all the Heads, Teachers and the ultimate Respondents of all the schools for their earnest cooperation in data collection.

Finally, I acknowledge with gratitude the help of all those who got involved in my research work.
