ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of this study was possible because of many people who provided me emotional as well as mental support and helped me with their valuable guidance. My first heartily thanks goes to my wonderful “encyclopedia” husband, who has helped me in each and every step and tried to carry my burden as much as possible, without making me aware of his difficulties and shortage of time in his busy schedule. Manoj’s personal time, energy, sacrifice and his valuable helping hand is an asset for me and I will always be thankful for his guidance.

I express my gratitude towards my parents Mr. & Mrs. Sati Prassana and Gita Halder, towards my brother Sandip and my father and mother-in-law Mr. & Mrs. Hari Krishna and Joystna Choudhury for their constant, unconditional and knowledgeable support.

I am grateful to Dr. Reecha Ranjan Singh, HOD Management JJT University for her valuable suggestions and cooperation.

The thanks given will be not complete without mentioning about my Guide Dr. Gajendra Naidu. His constant support, knowledge about the topic, solutions and guidance are admirable. I am fortunate to be under his guidance and heartily thank him for being so supportive.

Finally I thank God for helping me with strength and knowledge and providing me with good friends and professors for completing my work without any difficulties. Thank you all for being so supportive.
