ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have no words to express my most profound gratitude to Professor Sh. Abdur Rashid, former Professor and Head of the Department of History, Director, Historical Research, and Dean, Faculty of Arts, Muslim University, Aligarh. He took great pains in going through this thesis and incorporating many important and useful changes in my work. It is due to his kind and sympathetic attitude, and his able guidance that my work could see the light of the day. In spite of his ill health and multifarious engagements he took keen interest in going through these pages.

I shall be failing my duty if I do not avail of the opportunity of expressing my indebtedness and gratitude to my respected teacher, Prof. Mohd. Habib. In fact, it was his generosity and magnanimity that I was able to undertake research work. He made all provisions for my stay at Aligarh and helped me financially which will always remain a matter of deep personal gratitude for me.

I am very grateful to my revered teacher Mr. Khaliq Ahmad Nizami, who guided me at every step and gave very valuable directions and useful suggestions. He gave me full opportunity of using the rare printed books and valuable manuscripts in his personal library.

I should like to express my gratitude to my revered teachers Professor S. Nurul Hasan, Head of the Department of History and Director, Historical Research and Prof. Ch. Mohd. Sultan, Head of the Department of Political Science who helped me generously and sympathetically and provided to me every sort of facility which I needed. I gratefully recognize the help of all the staff members of the Department of History and Political Science, Muslim University, Aligarh.

My thanks are due to Maulana Imtiyas Ali Arshi of Raza Library, Rampur, Mr. Mohammad Mohdi Habib Khan of Anjuman Tarragi Urdu Hindi, Aligarh, Miss Saeeda Bano, Library Assistant, Historical Research Library, Department of History, M.U., Aligarh and the staff members of the University Library, Muslim University, Aligarh.

In the end I wish to express my thanks to my friend Mr. Abdul Khaliq Kazi, Stenographer, Department of History, Muslim University, for his untiring efforts in getting this thesis typed with interest and sincerity.

—— MUHAMMAD UMAR