

Acknowledgments

This study would not have come to completion if it hadn't been for the invaluable and superb assistance and supervision of Dr. Farhat Ullah Khan, who patiently and attentively directed me toward the selection of the topic, improvement of the procedures, and completion of the study. It has been a great pleasure for me to work with such professional supervisor. Besides, I am deeply indebted to the sincere collaboration of the colleagues and students of English Language Department at Aligarh Muslim University, especially Dr. Wiqar Husain, the Chairman.

I owe an enormous debt to all my colleagues at English Language Departments of Kerman Azad University and Shahid Bahonar University for their valuable suggestions. I also express my gratitude to the English language students of Kerman Islamic Azad University whose sincere and active participation assisted me greatly to fulfill the processes of the experiments.

I have to express my deep gratitude to my family who during the past few years patiently encouraged and supported me all throughout my research work.

Finally, I would like to express my indebtedness to all those people who have stimulated and guided my thinking over the past years by pertinent observation and critical comment.
