ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In reality, all thanks are due to Almighty Allah, the Lords of the worlds, who out of his infinite bounties for his unworthy mortals made it possible to complete this work. Blessings and salutations on the noble prophet of Allah and on the last of them Hazrat Muhammad (P.B.U.H.)

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all those who inspired and guided me in completing the present work.

First and foremost, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Akhlaq Ahmad, Dean and Head, Faculty of Law, A.M.U., Aligarh for motivating me to work on the topic.

I am highly indebted to Prof. Saleem Akhtar for his constant inspiration and words of encouragement.

I am also thankful to Prof. Mohd. Shabbir, Faculty of Law, A.M.U., whose suggestions have helped me in completing this work.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. Faizan Mustafa and Prof. Iqbal Ali Khan, Faculty of Law, A.M.U., for motivating me to work on the topic and extending tremendous support at every stage of the research. Their encouragement has helped me in various ways throughout. Their valuable suggestions and guidance helped me in completing this work.

My special thanks to Dr. Iqbal Parwez, Professor in Zoology, A.M.U., whose constructive suggestions and timely encouragement have helped me a great deal in further improving and refining this thesis.

I am also indebted to my teachers and senior colleagues, of the Faculty of Law and all my friends and well wishers for the support extended to me in the completion of this study.

I am also thankful to the librarians and staff of the American Center, British Center, World Health Organizations, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, G.O.I., Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, Maulana Azad Library and that of Law Library, A.M.U., Aligarh.

Last but not the least, mere thanking my wife Ms Maria Sherwani will indeed be too trivial. Her ungrudging love, affection and cooperation have been foundation of successful completion of this work. While I sweated on this project oblivious of my domestic responsibilities, she looked to my convenience along with my daughters Mariyam, Faiza and Aisha. They put up gladly with all kinds of hardships to keep me in the right frame of mind to let me pursue my work to the finish.

The above list of my well-wishers is only illustrative and by no means comprehensive. Since many more who deserved to be named could not find mention due to paucity of space. I, however, bow my head in gratitude for all of them.

The errors and omissions that remain are mine.

SHAKEEL AHMAD
(Senior Lecturer)