ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is all to the Glory of Almighty Who showered His choicest blessings upon us and made our dreams culminate into reality. A few persons deserve special mention and all praise, without whom this effort would not have seen the light of the day.

First of all, with deep sense of respect and regard, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to my Supervisor Dr. Mohammad Athar, Reader, Department of Civil Engineering, Z.H. College of Engineering and Technology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh (India), the guiding spirit behind this investigation. Without his active involvement, support, favour and guidance, this task would never have been completed. His dynamism and foresightedness helped me in a big way in completion of this work and I really feel privileged to have worked under his supervision.

I wish to put on record my gratitude to Prof. RazauIIah Khan, Chairman, Department of Civil Engineering, Z.H. College of Engineering and Technology, A.M.U., Aligarh for his kind and generous help in my research work. I am also thankful to the Department of Civil Engineering, A.M.U., Aligarh for extending the financial support for this study and for making available all the facilities in the Advanced Hydraulic Engineering Laboratory of the Department.

With deep sense of respect and regard, I acknowledge the very best support from Prof. Mohd. Jamil, former Chairman, Department of Civil Engineering, Z.H. College of Engineering and Technology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. He has been a constant source of moral support and inspiration for undertaking this study. Without his help this task could never have seen light of the day.

I sincerely acknowledge the cooperation and advice of all my colleagues and friends specially Dr. Sabih Akhtar, Mr. Malik Shoeb Ahmad, Dr. Talib Mansoor, Prof. M. M. Ashhar, Dr. Mohd Athar Ansari, Mr. Mohd Mohsin, Capt. Fareed Mahdi, Dr. Mohammed Arif, Dr. Tazyeen Ahmad, Dr. Sarfaraz Ali Ansari, Dr. Mohd. Muzzamml, Mr. Mubeen Beg, Dr. M. Firoz Alam, Mr. Ghulam Mohammed and Mr. Gulshan Ahmad who were always by my side and ready to extend their support.

Special regards to my parents, elders and other members in the family whose blessings and wishes helped me reach this end.

Finally, I owe the present work much to my wife Mehnaz Mujib, daughter Zainab Fatima and son Mohd. Zaid who despite their personal sufferings and sacrifices continued to extend their moral support and cooperation and helped me reach the target for which I shall ever remain indebted to them.
